In the Realms of Sport.

Owing to the rain Referee Hunt was obliged to postpone the B.I.S.-Saints game last night. If this average of deferred games keeps up it is going to be exceedingly awkward as regards players' vacations. Most of the boys in the runner-up teams swung over their rests until September, but the series are now covering the first week of that month, and in addition there is always the contingency of extra games for a playoff.

To-night's game is between the Feldians and the Stars and promises to be a rattling exhibition. The Feldians will present the same lineup as in their last appearance, but the Stars are bringing on a flock of new and gamey youngsters, who are reputed to be the real-I-ams.

The tall cost of living is far from a joke. The outlook in Europe is awful.
The railway debacle doth worry a bloke. And the tariff on sugar's unlawful.
You've nicked 20c for a nickel cigar And more for an op's-show vagabond.
They've jacked up the ante to ride in a car. And the journey to ruin is rapid.
But spite of the troubles that everywhere fit. As dense as the growth of a thicket, Oh Boy! I should worry and throw a wild fit. Bert has sent me a Season Ticket!

If you are staying in town tomorrow it is really incumbent upon you to be present at St. George's Field in the morning at 10.30 to witness the two preliminary 5-inning games between the Wanderers and Cubs, and the Red Lions and B.I.S.
The gross proceeds will be devoted to the Garden Party funds in aid of the Church of England Orphanage, and it's up to everyone who possibly can to be present.

What should be one of the fastest and classiest games of ball ever witnessed will be staged to-morrow afternoon when the B.I.S. and Wanderers will clash in the second game of the league fixtures. Dieted on ironed yeast, and entirely rejuvenated, is the Wanderers team under the care and guidance of that eminent specialist Dr. Andrew Oleson. The Irishmen have not been doing much shouting but under the magic wand of Bert Channing have been getting in very consistent practices and are as full of pep as year-old colts. The game starts at 2.30 with Mr. Chasman in control.

ADVICE TO BALL PLAYERS.

Pay close attention to everything your manager says, and then use your own judgment. As to blocking a sliding runner: The game will last forever, but your shins won't. Think twice before guying the opposing pitcher. You may have repatee but he has the bean ball. This early-to-bed stuff sounds all right, but the nightly argument at Harry's sounds better. The best way to avoid a fight with an umpire is not to let him overtake you.

After the game to-morrow afternoon the crowd are going to the St.
Mary's Garden Party at Lester's Field, where an attractive sports programme will be in evidence. If any of the sprinters have not yet entered for the 100 yds., ¼, ½ and 1 mile, they should do so at once to Gordon Pike, Phone 108. Gus Lester is the steward of the course in the pony race, and Fred Brien will control the football five. The C.L.B. and Guards Bands will furnish the music.

The Football Fives which will take place on to-morrow afternoon at St.
Mary's Garden Party, will be played in the following order:

- (a) B.I.S. vs. G.C.C.
  - (b) C.E.I. vs. Highlanders.
  - (c) Star vs. C.L.B.
  - (d) Guards vs. Saints.
  - (e) Feldians (bye).
  - (1) Winners of (a) v. Winners of (b)
  - (2) Winners of (c) v. Winners of (d)
  - (3) Winners of (a) v. Winners of (1)
  - (4) Winners of (2) v. Winners of (3)
- The winners of the Football Fives will be the recipients of a set of Gold Medals, which will be presented at the conclusion of the Sports.

Battle Between Battalions of Big Fish.

Passengers on the Scandinavian liner Frederick VIII, which arrived at New York a few days ago, told a remarkable tale of a grim battle between occupants of the deep, while off the Grand Banks of Newfoundland.
The ship was proceeding swiftly in good weather about dawn when the lookout sighted a large school of porpoises ahead.
Instead of proceeding as usual in one direction in orderly fashion, describing an occasional graceful arc in the air, the fish plunged madly in all directions, leaping straight in the air and lashing the water to foam. As they became aware of the presence of the ship they quickly gathered closely about it, as though for protection, swimming rapidly alongside to keep pace with it.

Their number was estimated at 200, the largest school any of the crew had ever seen.
Suddenly a number of huge, black shadows were noted stealing up on the school from behind. The sinister dorsal fin occasionally appearing above the water proclaimed them to be sharks. They gained steadily and finally plunged among the porpoises.
Instantly the terror of the latter again became apparent as they strove madly to escape in all directions.

In their confusion they dived wildly against the side of the ship. Some were struck by the on-rushing bow.
Others were drawn into propellers.

Meanwhile the sharks continued a methodical campaign of extermination.
The after another of the frantic porpoises was ripped by the teeth of the pursuing monsters, and left to be consumed later at leisure.

The fight continued until half the school had been killed when the sharks abandoned the chase.

For an hour after, the porpoises clung to the ship. At last, deciding the danger had passed, they swung off on a course at right angles and disappeared.

Mr. Simon Burns, Jacoby's solicitor, presented a monster petition at the Home Office on Tuesday praying for his reprieve.

After leaving the Home Office the petition presenting the petition visited Buckingham Palace, where they saw one of the secretaries. They placed before him the grounds of appeal on behalf of Jacoby, and requested the reply that the matter would be given consideration.

Later in the evening the deputation was informed that Mr. Shortt could see no reason to alter his decision.
Jacoby was confirmed by the Bishop of Stepney on Tuesday morning in Pentonville Prison chapel.

Messrs. Butcher and Burns on Tuesday received a note from Jacoby thanking them for all they had done for him.
The letter concluded:—

"H.J. 332." Please excuse this curious signature, as it is what I shall be buried under.—Glasgow Weekly Herald.

LEAGUE GAME POSTPONED.— Owing to the inclement weather the League football game Saints vs. B.I.S., scheduled for last evening was postponed by referee Hunt, to be played at the end of the season. The contesting teams to-night will be Stars and Feldians. A good game is anticipated.

Jacoby Hanged.

LADY WHITE AVENGED—LAST MINUTE PETITION.

Henry Jacoby, the murderer of Lady White, was executed at Pentonville Prison on Wednesday morning at nine o'clock.

Calm while Mr. Justice McCardie passed sentence of death, calm before the Court of Criminal Appeal, Jacoby remained until the end. At the appointed hour of nine o'clock he walked unaided to the scaffold, and met his death unflinchingly. Ellis was the executioner and the sentence was carried out in the presence of the Governor of the prison, Major Blake, the prison doctor, the chaplain, and the Under-Sheriff, Sir R. Kynaston Metcalfe. Jacoby is understood to have made no statement before the execution.

A crowd of 300 or 400 people gathered outside the prison, and when the clock struck nine a number of them removed their hats. No bell was tol-led in accordance with the usual custom, as another prisoner lies in the prison under sentence of death.
Jacoby was condemned to death at the Old Bailey on April 28 for the murder of Lady White in a London hotel. He was recommended to mercy by the jury.

Mr. Simon Burns, Jacoby's solicitor, presented a monster petition at the
his reprieve.

petition presenting the petition visited

anywhere that was handy.

The starfish has an eye on the tip of each of its five rays or arms, so that it is able to look in all directions at one time. The scallop has numerous eyes placed casually on the edge of its mantle, extending from one end of the animal to the other and forming a semi-circle. Some marine worms have eyes in clusters, not only on the head, but extending along each side of the body, even to the tip of the tail, and they are connected individually and directly with the median nervous cord.

In spiders and scorpions there are usually eight or ten eyes in one or more clusters on the dorsal aspect of that part of the body which is formed by the union of the head and thorax. The dragon fly possesses eyes composed of an aggregate of 50,000 smaller eyes, an arrangement similar to that of the common house fly, which, however, has to get along with a mere 10,000.

In the lower forms there are found many infusoria which have neither eyes nor nerves, but which are, nevertheless, sensitive to light, either seeking or avoiding it.—Kan-

Why They

Changed Stores.

Home Buckley, speaking in Chicago recently, reported the analysis of the reasons influencing an average hundred persons to change store preference:

store indifference.

Nine because of better service elsewhere.

Three because other stores are more convenient.

Forty-five because of unadjusted prices.

Five were influenced by friends to go elsewhere; and one died.
