"Lights Out"

Remarkable Feature Delights Majestic Patrons.

In "Lights Out," the comedy-drama by Paul Dickey and Mann Page, now nowing at the Majestic Theatre, an lique duel is fought between two cellent swordsmen, one armed with a club, the other with a delicate steel rapier carried in a cane. The screen fight is between Theodore Von Eltz, in real life the son of a baron, who received his instruction in the art of duelling from a great European fencing master, and Ben fencing a hobby for years.
