

The Fisheries Bill.

The Bill respecting the Department of Marine and Fisheries has been introduced in the Senate by Mr. Mitchell. A minister of Marine and a Deputy Minister, who shall have control of the business of the Department are provided for. The Department will have control as follows, viz.: 1st. Sea coast and inland fisheries, and the management, regulation and protection thereof. 2nd. Trinity houses and Trinity boards, pilots and pilotage, and decayed pilots funds. 3rd. Buoys, lights and lighthouses, and their construction and maintenance. 4th. Harbours, ports, piers, and wharves, steamers and vessels belonging to the Government of Canada. 5th. Harbour commissioners and harbour masters. 6th. Classification of vessels and examination and granting certificates of masters and mates, and others in the merchant service. 7th. Shipping masters and shipping offices. 8th. Inspectors of Steamboats and Board of Steamboat Inspection. 9th. Enquiry into causes of shipwreck. 10th. Establishment, regulation and maintenance of marine and seamen hospitals, and care of distressed seamen, and generally such matters as refer to the marine and navigation of Canada.

From Ottawa.

Mr. Spence is still in Ottawa in consultation with Ministers about the contemplated changes in the tariff. It is expected now that several important measures have been brought down, that Parliament will get actively to work next week, and that the remaining business of the session will be disposed of with as little delay as is consistent with mature legislation.

A return brought down as regards the Secret Service appropriation of $100,000, shows that against this appropriation a warrant issued in favor of Sir N. F. Belleau for $50,000, and the amount was deposited by him to the joint account of the Hon. Attorney General East and West, the Minister of Finance, and the Provincial Secretary, in accordance with an Order in Council dated 6th August 1867. Of this amount there remained on 1st July, 1867, and is still unexpended, $5,398.33. The remaining $50,000 still remains unexpended at the credit of the appropriation.

A strong pressure has lately been made by some of Mr. Cartier's supporters below Quebec in favour of the selection of the North Shore or Robinson Line for the Intercolonial Railway route. Ministerialists continue to mention Shanley, Galt and Grey, as the probable commissioners to construct the Intercolonial railroad. Mr. Galt's friend think he would do much better to take a contract. Ministerialists all agree that the commissioners should be well paid, and that it should not be necessary for them to retire from Parliament.

OTTAWA NOV. 29th. The Speaker ruled that the Kamouraska election petition be received on the ground of a precedent in favor of this course in a similar case in England.

Mr. Howland, from the committee on banking and commerce, reported the bill relating to the commercial Bank, with several amendments; and stated that the bill had been re-printed as amended.

Mr. McDougall gave notice of a series of resolutions on the Hudson Bay Territories; and Sir John A. Macdonald of a series on the Intercolonial railroad. The bill for the suspension of the Habeas Corpus act then passed a second reading, after some debate in which a very good spirit was displayed. The Intercolonial Navigation Company's bill was then read a second time and the House adjourned.

NOVA SCOTIA PUBLIC ACCOUNTS.—A commission has been appointed by the Nova Scotian Government to examine the accounts of the various public departments. It consists of three gentlemen unconnected with politics, skilled accountants, and supposed to be impartial. It is expected that their inspection of the accounts will bring to light a good deal of peculation. The anti-Union papers are crowing jubilantly in anticipation of some sensational disclosures; and think the day has arrived for exposing the hollowness of the Tupperian philosophy. There is, however, a chance that their ill-natured hopes may be disappointed, and that Messrs. Tupper and Co., may, when unmasked, display as honest faces as those of their successors and self-appointed inquirers.

EARLY ADJOURNMENT OF THE SESSION.—The Hamilton Times says: It is the general conviction among members of Parliament at Ottawa that the House will be adjourned about the 10th or 12th of December. It is not probable, therefore—indeed, it seems impossible—that any action can be taken on Mr. Rose's new Tariff Bill. It is, however, very desirable that it should be printed and circulated before the House adjourns, in order that it may be fully examined and discussed during the interim between the adjournment and the reassembling of the Legislature in February.

SPEDDY INTELLIGENCE.—On Saturday morning last, at 10 o'clock, the three Fenian murderers, Allen, Gould and Larkin were hanged at Manchester, England. On the same afternoon before six o'clock, the intelligence was printed and circulated in the Hamilton Times, the Belleville Intelligencer, the Guelph Mercury, and other daily papers. We believe this is about the quickest time which has yet been made in the transport of news from Europe to the fire sides of Canadian readers.—Cobourg World.

MORE SALT WANTED.—The sinking of six new wells is to be immediately commenced at Goderich.

STARVING.—The Buffalo Express says a boy about fifteen years of age, named John Burke, who said he came from Canada, was found about nine o'clock on Tuesday morning in a starving condition in Holmes' lumber-yard, on Michigan street. He was taken to No. 2 station and afterwards turned over to the

The North-West Territory.

The Rev. George Macdonald thus referred to the capabilities of British Columbia and the North West at the meeting of the Wesleyan Missionary Society in Whitby:—

The country is larger than this wide Dominion, and the agricultural portion of it is larger than Eastern or Western Canada. It would give them a few facts. The cattle live out all winter—except once during the last five years there was no need to feed horned animals or horses. This country extends 100 miles from Red River to the Rocky Mountains. As to minerals he could trace 800 miles of coal in one direction. On one small creek he saw a seam of coal extending for six miles and four or five feet thick. On the Athabaska River 100 miles to the north of him coal could be seen all along the banks, also on the southern banks of the Saskatchewan, in one place he had seen it where it had been on fire from time immemorial. There was timber, too, in abundance. Some of the finest rivers in the world ran parallel for hundreds of miles, and on the higher portions of their course, near the Rocky Mountains, was the finest timber. As to gold, he wished he had all the gold that could be picked up only five miles from the Mission House—he would soon pay the debt of the society. The gold is there, and it will come in due time. Every river on the eastern slope of the Rocky Mountains is full of gold. It might be asked, why is not this gold taken out? Men cannot at present find provisions while they try to do it. Flour is in that country $1 a pound working cattle $300 each. Miners will not work there under $10 a day. Men must go in and farm there, else provisions cannot be furnished in sufficient abundance to support the miners. If Dr. Taylor would come out this way, he would show him mountains which were the backbone of this continent. Let him see one sunrise from the eastern slope of the Rocky Mountains, with the strawberries at his feet and eternal snow above him at the summit of the mountains, and he would soon acknowledge the Alps, of which he was so fond of talking to be small. When he came to Red River he felt cross with the Canadians every hour on account of their indifference to this fine territory. Americans are wide awake. An old farmer who wanted me to preach at his house showed me the wheat he had raised. He had raised 300 bushels of wheat weighing 68 lbs to the bushel. He had seen there the finest specimens of flax, and fit for thread of the finest quality for fisheries and other purposes. Native hops worth seventy-five cents a pound in St. Paul's could be gathered by the wagon load.

On the 23rd inst, the Garrafrax Council introduced a by-law, granting $20,000 to the W. G. & B. Railway. A vote will be taken on the by-law on the 21st of December.

MONEY STOLEN.—The Berlin Telegraph records the following:—A young man named Edward Wyatt employed as a bus tender and mail driver at the "Commercial" Hotel in this town had $300 stolen out of his trunk one day last week. The robbery was effected, it would seem, by some one in possession of a key similar to that of the trunk, for it was carefully locked after the money had been abstracted. Wyatt did not discover his loss until Friday when having occasion to search for something in his trunk he found that his money was gone. Several circumstances which have come to light since the departure from town rather suddenly of a spruce young tailor named Codlin, who boarded at the "Commercial" and was aware of the money being in Wyatt's trunk, point strongly to him as the thief, but as he had left town on Wednesday there was no doubt out of the way before the discovery of the robbery. A trunk in a boarding house is evidently not the proper place to keep money.

LOVERS' DICTIONARY.—This is the title of a new and pretty collection of poetry, published by Harper Bros., New York, and a copy of which we have received from Messrs. Tunis & Co., Clifton. It is a beautiful volume, bound in morocco, and containing nearly 800 pages, of selections from the best of the English poets. It discourses only of love, and no smitten nymph or swain can scan its pages without finding something congenial to her or his peculiar state of mind between the lines when love first buds, and when it has reached its consummation, which, it is popularly believed, is the wedding day. The compiler must have perfectly understood the emotions which accompany what Byron calls "a gentle frailty," since no other than an individual of experience could so well have provided solace for despairing, or the means of extrication for embarrassed love. The book is for sale at Day's bookstore, and all who are troubled with the tender passion should purchase it.

A ROYAL WEDDING.—The King of Greece was married to the Grand Duchess Olga Constantynovna, at St. Petersburg, on the 27th ultimo. The wedding party assembled in the Winter palace, at 8 o'clock in the morning, and a procession being formed, they proceeded to the Court Chapel. In the procession was the Crown Prince of Denmark, and Prince Charles of Schleswig-Holstein; the bridegroom's bridesmaids; also some other relations of the bridegroom, whose names are so long that they would occupy more space than we can afford to give them. The bride was dressed in white satin, with a crimson velvet mantle, lined with ermine, and a crown upon her head. The marriage ceremony was performed according to the rites of the Greek Church, and also according to that of the Lutheran Church (to which religion the King belongs). In the evening there was a grand ball, after which the married couple, in accordance with an ancient custom, received a religious picture, bread and salt, from the hands of the Czarwitich. Our readers will remember that the King of Greece is brother to the Princess of Wales.

THE Parliament of North Germany has abolished all laws against usury. Germans have long been aware that a legal maximum for money is absurd, but the landowners have a notion that it enables them to borrow money cheap, and they have actually carried a clause providing that a mortgage on land may always be paid off at six months' notice, without agreement to the contrary notwithstanding. The effect of this funny arrangement will be, that every landowner who borrows will have to pay an extra percentage, because the law enables him to break his word. The secret is, that city capitalists are gradually ousting the old proprietors.

The Tribune says that half a million dollars was lost and won on the late election in the city of New York. John Morrissey, it is stated, came in for a large slice of the winnings.

On Saturday the fog was so dense at Quebec that the ferry boat could not cross the river. The ocean-steamship had to anchor at the mouth of the harbor. The steamer Advance reports the ice so thick in the river on the way to Platon, that she is unable to return to port.

ODDS AND ENDS.

Dry Goods.—Salt codfish.

A great mistake—Accidentally burying a man alive.

The only Real Safety Matches after all. Rich marriages.

What was the earliest tubular bridge? The bridge of the nose.

THE REAL CHAMPION OF THE RING.—Mothers with daughters to marry.

The Lowell Courier calls the parting of young ladies adieu about nothing.

Why should you suppose that Job suffered from sore throat?—Because he had three comforters, and they were all worsted.

What young woman named in the Bible read her sweetheart the worst?—Ruth—she pulled his ears and trod on his corn.

Two of the clergy of Sheffield trace the outrages at that place to the fact that the sacramental vessels in the church are made of pewter.

A COUPELLET FOR YOUNG LADIES.—The best of all ways to lengthen our days. Is—to go to bed early, and never wear stays.

A teacher said to a little girl at school, "If a naughty girl should hurt you, like a good girl you would forgive her, wouldn't you?" "Yes marm," she replied. If I couldn't catch her."

It was an apt answer of a young lady who being asked where was her native place, replied, "I have none; my father was a Methodist minister."

EQUALITY.—Some one was praising our public schools to Charles Landseer, and said—"All our best men were school men. Look at our poets. There's Byron—he was a Harrow Boy."—"Yes," interrupted Charles, "and there's Burns—he was a ploughboy."

HOW TO BONE TURKEYS.—Get up at two o'clock a. m. The darker it is the better. Climb over your neighbor's fence, and bone the first gobbler you can. You had better bone two or three while you are at it, as it saves trouble. You will find this plan very economical.
