OF 21 CANADIANS WOUNDED SIX ENLISTED IN THIS CITY.

Three Had Served With First | H. Wilson, of the Hamilton road. Be-Contingent-Sergt. Munro

Injured.

Of the 21 Canadians whom further eport says were injured at Hart's River, six were enlisted in London. Only one of these, however, is a London man.

Sergt. A. E. Munro.

a week ago, is a son of Mr. James Munro, engineer on the C. P. R. Sergt. Munro was a member of the 7th Regiment, and was in Winnipeg when the first contingent was enlisted. He joined A Company and served with the contingent through the earlier portion of the campaign, returning to this city with the London boys. He was in Dein it, being granted the non-commissioned rank of sergeant. Sergt. Munro is one of the best known of the London men who fought in Africa.

Trooper Wilson.

The same cable that told of Sergt. Munro's injury, said that Trooper John in Stratford. Wilson is dangerously ill with enteric fever. Trooper Wilson is a son of Mr.

fore leaving for Africa Trooper Wilson was a member of the 1st Hussars.

Pte. C. K. Rorison. Pte. C. K. Rorison, who was shot in the thigh, is a Windsor man. He, too, was in B Company, recruited in London, for the first contingent, and was extremely popular with the men who Buller controversy, the war secretary, went from this city, who speak of Mr. Brodrick, said that in view of the him in terms of the highest praise. While with the first contingent in Af-Sergt. A. E. MERRY IN HER HOME.

Colebrated Her Acquittal of Murder by a Gay Party in Her Residence. Mount Holly, N.J., April 8.-Mrs. Mabel Fenton Haines is at her old home in Delance. On her arrival the house was lighted from top to bottom. The plano, which for a year has been silent and toneless, was opened, and in the rooms that, according to the neighbors, had rung for months with the groans and rung for months with the groans and sobbings of the tortured child, strains of the gayest music were heard for hours. Dancing was indulged in and everyone was in a merry mood. No one enjoyed herself more than Mrs. Haines. Only relatives and a few friends who have stuck to Mrs. Haines from the outwere present. A feast was spread shortly before midght, and a little later the celebration ided, the woman who had faced an or-

TION. Toronto, April 8.—A charge has been laid against the Toronto World for the desecration of the Sabbath. The World, when the list of casualties reached To-ronto from Ottawa Sunday night, published a special edition, and sold it on the streets. The policemen on the different beats where the boys were crying their wares took the names of a number of the lads, some of whom ceased. Boys who continued to sell papers will be summoned to court.
