AGAUNI

Nine-tenths of these Agauni shares have been taken up by the leading business men of London.

Nearly twenty thousand shares are held in and around Haileybury, near which place the mine is situated.

The property is all paid for, the Government requirements have been fully met, the claim will be "patented" as soon as the papers can be made out, and all working charges have been promptly settled.

A recent assay has returned 1,582 ounces silver to the ton, and continue developments a small block of shares is offered the to continue developments a small block of s public at ten cents (10c) per share (fully paid).

The directorate is exceptionally strong, and they fully indorse the shares. These men are leading citizens, whose bought and largely worked the property up to date.

This offer is limited, both in number of shares and in time, as they will be withdrawn shortly, possibly immediately after the special general meeting scon to be held. Some of the shareholders have taken three and four different lots of shares, thus proving their confidence in the property and management.
