Company Is in the Hands of a Receiver-Distress To Be Issued.

[Canadian Press.] Toronto, Aug. 7.-W. T. Henderson,

K. C., of Brantford, appeared before Chief Justice Sir Wm. Meredith a Osgoode Hall today on application on behalf of that city for an order for distress on the property of the Grand Valley Railway for $7,555.62 claimed due as arrears of taxes for 1913.

The railway company was represented by F. Smoke, of Toronto. The railway is in the hands of a receiver, E. B. Stockdale, of Toronto.

Mr. Smoke urged that distress was not the proper procedure.

"When will you be ready to pay these taxes?" asked his lordship. Mr. Smoke could not say. He pointed out that the property was in the hands of a receiver, who could only pay taxes out of money in his hands. The city of Brantford, Mr. Smoke declared, was largely responsible for the receiver not being able to raise money He argued that an agreement with the city whereby the trial of the city's action for the forfeiture of the rail- Publicity Commissioner May Remain way's franchise was to be postponed till September.

"I will make the order for the issue of the distress warrant not to issue for a month," remarked Sir William. The order was afterwards changed so that it will not issue until Sept. 17 when the other action comes up.

KEIR HARDIE IS AFTER NAMES IN UNSAVORY CASE

Asks Why Queenie Gerald Was Not Prosecuted as a Procuress.

British Papers Are Stirring Up Big Agitation Over Cabinet Scandal.

[Canadian Press.]

London, Aug. 8 .- Keir Hardie, the Velsh Labor member, with brutal directness, said yesterday in the Hous of Commons that the names of cabinet ministers were being bandied about in connection with the unsavory Queenie Gerald, "white slave" case, some of the facts in which are now said to have been suppressed by the home of-

Worried Secretary. Mr. Keir Hardie kept on with his mestions, asking why all the names in the case had not been presented to the judge. Mr. Griffith answered this by saying that the woman pleaded guilty, and that further evidence was not necessary. The Labor member then put a pertinent question, asking if the ledger account kept by the woman against certain men who frequented her Piccadilly flat, was not proof that they acted with her and were therefore liable to prosecution. Was Not Justified.

The under secretary then fell back the hackneyed formula that he 42, running off was "advised" that the facts and dence in the case did not justify any he track, but none of the crew or prosecution of the men. NEAR CANTON I. C. R. Dispute Has JUDGMENT RESERVED IN Been Arranged DORCHESTER ASSAULTING Defence Claims Evidence of Child Witness Is Not To Be Relied Upon.

Judgment was reserved by Judge Macbeth this morning in the case of Percy Talbot, charged with assault upon Mrs. Apnie Levitt, of Dorchester. A decision will be handed down Friday morning at 11 o'clock Mrs. Levitt and her 7-year-old son were the only witnesses heard who were present at the time of the alleged assault. Her husband offered evidence as to what occurred after his return from work. The prisoner, through his counsel, Mr. J. F. Faulds, refused to give evidence in his own behalf.

The woman's testimony practically corroborated this. The defence claimed that the evidence of the woman was not sufficiently corroborated by that of the 7-year-old son, and that it was dangerous to convict on the unsupported evidence of the prosecutrix in such a case. It was further held that if the woman had persisted in her outcry she would have been heard from the street or from neighboring houses. It was claimed that she had opportunity to do this, but did not take advantage of it. This, according to the defence, placed her in the ight of a consenting party.
