"What will the young lady do?" Compunction was in the tones of his attractive voice. It was a nice voice, I had previously decided that.

"Maybe you'd walk along with her, part way, sir? The road is rather quiet. The car can bring the suitcases later—"

"Why, certainly." He smiled at me, then turned again to the station-master than turned again to the station-master.

"How far is it to Anstruther Lodge?" My heart was in my boots as I stared along the pine-bordered road. For dusk was falling rapidly.
"About three miles, miss."
The station-master turned to Travis Lloyd.
"No car for you, either, sir."
Mr. Travis Lloyd smiled amiably Then his face sobered as he looked at me.
