FAKIRS TRAVEL IN VAN OF VETERANS

KINGSTON, Ont., May 25.—Two Kingston citizens passed "General" McDonald's army of veterans near Trenton this afternoon, and report that owing to desertions, the army is much depleted, and that the total on the march did not exceed 125. They brought a warning to Kingston to beware of fakirs, who are reported to be traveling ahead of the main column, soliciting money and other articles on behalf of the veterans which they convert to their own use. These fakirs are not veterans.

HOLD INTERESTING PARADE.

DORCHESTER, May 24.—Mrs. R. R. Jelly as "Maytime" was the first prize winner in connection with the calthumpian parade held here today. Other prizes were won by Robert Farquar, a gypsy, and Mr. Moxley and William White as honeymooners.

The Women's Institutes, Bowling Club and Trail Rangers took part in the parade. School races were another feature of the program. A concert was held this evening. The baseball games resulted as follows: Thamesford 5, Dorchester 0; Gladstone 5, Avon 1, and Thamesford 5, Gladstone 2.
