

City Juniors Face Real Test Tonight; Canadiens and Ottawa Win

ST. PATS GO DOWN BEFORE OTTAWA'S SPEEDY ATTACKS

Four Goals in First Period Increased To Six in Second.

TIGERS LOSE 5 TO 1

Canadian Press Despatch. Ottawa, Jan. 6.—Toronto St. Pats were no match for Ottawa Senators in the N. H. L. fixture here last night, and were decisively beaten 7 to 1. The locals retained command of the situation throughout, and only good goal-keeping by Roach kept the score down.

Sensors jumped into a four-goal lead in the first period, and added two more in the second. They scored six of the first seven goals, and the difference between the two teams in the middle session Ottawa used plenty of substitutes, but St. Pats could not penetrate the defence. The visitors showed a flash of real form in the final twenty minutes, but the lead was too big to lose. The game was a one-sided affair, however, as the Senators had slowed down with their big lead, and Boucher brushed through for another and the final goal before time was up. The hockey was not brilliant, but was consistent all through.

The lineup: St. Pats' Ottawa: Roach, goal; Benedict, Corbeil, defence; Boucher, Adams, center; Nighbor, Noble, wing; Denney, Arbour, sub; Broadbent, Dye, sub; Smilie, Andrews, sub; Helman, Jackson, sub; Clancy. Referee—Art Ross, Montreal. Judge of Play—E. Garon, Montreal.

CANADIENS WIN. Montreal, Jan. 6.—Canadiens stomped for the third time, defeating Hamilton last Wednesday, when they swamped the Tigers in a scheduled N. H. L. fixture here Saturday night 5 to 1. About 5,000, the largest crowd that has witnessed a local match here this season—attended the game, in which the Montrealers clearly demonstrated their superiority in speed, stick handling, shooting and hockey generalship.

Seldom in N. H. L. games locally has such fast hockey been seen as that which marked the first period. To the credit of Hamilton, they presented a much stronger lineup than that which represented the Yellow and Black in the past few seasons.

The lineup: Canadiens: Hamilton: Veina, goal; Forbes, C. Cleghorn, defence; Randall, Gault, defence; Spring, Morenz, center; Burch, Joliat, wing; Roach, Boucher, wing; Prodger, C. Cleghorn, sub; Red Green, Camper, sub; Bouchard, Mantha, sub; C. Denney. Referee—Col. Spittal and Dr. Laflamme.

Hard Luck Dogs Terriers' Trail

Special to The Advertiser. Galt, Jan. 6.—Hard luck is dogging the trail of the Terriers. In the first period of Friday night's game with Stratford Alex. Watts, the big defence man, had his foot cut through to the bone by a skate. Today he is under the doctor's care, and will be unable to play for a week. In addition to his loss, which leaves the team with only two defence men, the Terriers are short on substitute forwards, but an effort is being made to get out "Speedy" Oliver, who played right wing for the past several years, and also Les McCulloch.

SHAMROCKS WIN AT ST. KITTS 22-12

London Girls Run Up Fifteen-Point Lead in First Half.

Canadian Press Despatch. St. Catharines, Jan. 6.—The London Shamrocks, champion ladies' basketball team, defeated the newly organized St. Catharines ladies' team here Saturday night in the armories 22 to 12.

The winners thus secured both games of the round played. They showed the advantage of experience and superior training. The visitors outclassed the locals in the first half and ran up a score of 12 to 6. But while the St. Kitts girls faltered in the first half, they came back strong in the second, and scored eleven points to their opponents' six before the bell rang. There was some stage fright in the first half and many opportunities were missed on the basket.

The line-up and individual scores: London Shamrocks: Forwards, Blackwell (4), Duncan (2); center, subs, Hayden (6), Ross (2). St. Catharines: Forwards, M. Thom (1), C. Nash (6); center, A. Thom (1); C. Nash, Warren (1), L. Thom (3); subs, McMahon and Craig. Referee—C. Schmidt.

MOUNT CLEMENS IS NOW CENTRE OF WINTER RACING

Michigan City Meet To See Many Canadian Horses in Action.

GRAND STAND HEATED

Special to The Advertiser. Mt. Clemens, Jan. 6.—The winter racing scene shifts here from Toronto tomorrow for a six-day meet. Great preparations are being made for the annual ice meet, as the comfort of the patron is always a great consideration. The races are witnessed from a heated grand stand, enclosed in glass, and connected by a wide tunnel with the steam-heated betting enclosure. A stroll through the stands in zero weather is no less pleasant, as an even temperature is maintained in these buildings, which boast of hot and cold water, and other advantages which offset the usual disadvantages of winter racing.

One of the distinguished visitors at the recent Toronto meet was A. W. Taylor, secretary of the Mt. Clemens Driving Club, booking Canadian entries for this meet. Mr. Taylor states that a large number of horses are now working at Mt. Clemens. Among the more prominent are: Harry Stokes, with the pacer, A. H. Hart, a full brother to Buddy Mac, 2:02 1/4; the latter a repeated winner for Nat Ray last season. William Armstrong has the consistent trotter, Imperio, Frank Shackett has two green pacers and the trotter, Alice Pilot.

Will Renew Battle. The last named will meet his old rival, Red Top, in the stable of Ed. Lewis, and the pair will renew their battle of the late season, with the chances favoring Red Top, whose slim limbs will be favored over the heavier, but more powerful, Lewis.

Edwards and Black Dan are in the stable of Dr. B. W. Midland, Mich. Others of the note are John, 2:30 trotter; Katcha Koo, now a 2:18 trotter; John Q., green pacer, and the trotter, Distinct, owned by Jack Roche of Stratford, Ont.

Mr. Taylor was highly impressed with a green pacer called B. Hal, by Hal E. 2:04 1/4, which Vic Fleming is working at Mount Clemens. This fellow has not had any great success, but recently paced a mile in 1:10, with a half in 1:10 and a quarter in 33 seconds. Vic will also take over Irene Scott, ice record 2:16 1/4, and a triple winner at the local meet.

Many Canadian Horses. Other Canadian horses that will cross the border for this meet and the one following at Cleveland are: Jim Todd, Jr., Baron Todd and Concominium in the stable of Gene Marsh; Billy Abbell, Texas Jinxed Texas Earl, controlled by Bill Harvey; Ted, Billy Bishop and Schuyler Grattan, in the stable of C. Chapman; T. N. T., Delgetta and Belani in the stable of C. Lindburg; Forest Ridge Bill, Pat Pointer, in charge of Al. Vance.

In addition to the above the American stables that have been racing at Mt. Clemens include: Daley Post, "Humph" Morrison with Daley Post, Peter Yingling, the faint-hearted Buster Brown, and Gilbert N.; Erickson with Worke Boy. Vic Rowntree recently bought the bay gelding, Jim Todd, Jr., now in the bay stable of Gene Marsh.

CURLERS AT PETROLIA BEGIN SEASON TONIGHT

Special to The Advertiser. Petrolia, Jan. 6.—Local curlers will open the season Monday. C. Thomas, caretaker of the Columbus rink, says the ice will be in perfect shape by then if Jack Frost continues to now performing. Secretary Wallace says that the membership has greatly increased, and the club hopes to have a successful year.

POLO GROUNDS OFFICIALS KNOW NOTHING OF BOUT

Associated Press Despatch. New York, Jan. 6.—Officials of the Polo Grounds Athletic Club professed ignorance of reported negotiations in Paris for a featherweight championship match here in May between Mascart, European champion, and Johnny Dundee, world's title holder. James J. Johnston, manager of such a match.

ST. PATS' OFFER LURES LANGLOIS

Canadian Press Despatch. Sudbury, Jan. 5.—Charles Langlois of the Sudbury N. O. H. A. hockey team left the team last night at Renfrew, going to Ottawa. He told his comrades he intended to accept an offer made by the St. Patricks team of the National Hockey League to enter professional ranks. Bill Duncan and Joe Ironstone accompanied him, and it is thought that all three may leave the amateur club.

JUNIORS WILL GET FIRST REAL TEST HERE TONIGHT

Woodstock Youngsters Have Two Victories Under Belts So Far.

HOWARD IN AGAIN

Expect Results From Defensive Drilling Given Back Line Saturday.

Probable Line-ups. Woodstock. London A.A.A. Murdoch.....Goode.....Howard Whitehead.....Defence.....Line Pascoe.....Defence.....Robson Jenkinson.....Centre.....Barrett Smith.....Wings.....Monahan Wilson.....Subs.....McMillan Wilson.....Subs.....Palmy Roadhouse.....Subs.....Graham

London juniors get their first big test tonight when they tangle up with Woodstock's much touted youngsters. The Woodstock youths scored an impressive victory over Glencoe in the opening game, and another over Ingersoll, but to some extent these scores may be discounted.

London piled up almost as large a total against Glencoe after the village lads had two games under their belts whereas Woodstock met the Glencoe boys when they were just finding their ice legs.

Howard, who was injured in practice before the game Friday night, was in between the flags tonight. He is much steadier than young Biggs, but over the week-end he was getting better. He and Robson were drilled in defensive tactics Saturday afternoon, and the results should show tonight, as they gave McMillan, Barrett and Monahan lots of trouble in practice.

This trio is one of the nearest little forward lines London ever trotted out in junior hockey. They do everything except back checking, and in their last game they were a bit short on this. However, probably they felt they didn't need much of this to knock Glencoe in bounds.

Graham and Palmy will be the subs. Graham at least fills in nicely as a spare. Young Palmy hasn't been given much work yet.

Harder opposition will make the London youngsters look better. Glencoe's style of play was upsetting in that they played little team work and did other unexpected things.
