Vice-President Coolidge Writes Optimistic Business Message.

Boston, Oct. 20-There is a definit turning of the tide in the business and industrial activities of the United Sta-tes, Vice President Calvin Coolidge said in a message to the Boston Chamber of Commerce, read at its opening assembly luncheon today.

This upward swing of the business pendulum is clearly defined to those who can read the economic signs of the times," his m ssage sa'd: "It is the bank, the railroad, the post office, we mill and the field. And it calls for a spirit of optimism, and an atit-da of self reliant forward looking con-dence on the part of the business men of more importance than to New England. It is at once the duty and the opportunity of the business men of sew England to crystallize this spirit a business optimism is to the

While Conservive spellbinders are predicting a victory for their party, the more cautious Montreal Gazette says "the prevalent thought is that neither party will emerge from the contest with a working majority." This ad-mission of Conservative defeat is coupled with c calogy of Sir Lome Gouin, which, coming from a Conservative source, almost takes one breath away. It says of him:

The is the type of man needed at Ottawa. A Liberal in name, Sir Lomer is a Conservative in nature, and we business optimism into the conduct their affairs to the each that the entire economic life of the nation may be speedily returned to its rightful continental Limited" on C.N.R. the Finest Medium of Transcontinental Travel.
