AROUND THE WORLD.

A large amount of boxed pork, shipped from New York to Antwerp a few months ago has been shipped back again, the price being higher at home than abroad.

At a recent sale of rabbits in England the enormous sum of $200 was paid for one of these little creatures. Of course it was of a famous breed.

Count Wilhelm Bismarck is likely to succeed to the title and estates of his father, his elder brother having incurred the princess's serious displeasure.

The St. John, N.B., News says that a daily mail from Bangor to all parts of the upper St. John and Aroostook may be expected by the middle of May.

At St. John's chapel, New York, 67 loaves of bread are given to the poor every Saturday, a bequest for this purpose having been made thirty years ago.

The general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church to meet at Nashville, May 3, will be composed of 25 delegates representing 39 annual conferences.

Some thieves at Harrisburg, Pa., not only stole all the provisions in a house the other night, but carried off half a ton of coal without arousing any of the family.

Twenty-four loads of cast of furniture from the white house were sold at auction Saturday, the sale realizing about $6000.

It was the first sale of the kind since Buchanan's administration.

The great grandson of the author of "Robinson Crusoe" lives at Shirley, in England, in helpless poverty. James W. De Foe is his name, and he is the sole lineal male descendant of the author now living.

"How do I manage to rid myself of boys?" said a woman of the world. "Nothing is easier. When I want to send a man away, I talk to him about myself. When I want him to stay indefinitely, I talk about himself."

The cotton spindles of the world number 72,121,148. Great Britain having 39,500,000 and the United States following with 10,221,148. The earliest cotton mill in the United States was established at Lowell, Mass., prior to 1792.

A young man from eastern Canada, who recently went to Winnipeg, rented a room at a hotel there and leased the sofa and chairs in the parlor. He was unable to secure accommodations, and the enterprise nets him a comfortable income.

Said a former resident of Texas: "I was innocent of the theft of those horses, but my breaking fall and running away makes folks think I was a thief. However, if I had staid and asserted my innocence, they'd have lynched me, so I never regretted the step."

The Buddhists of Japan have dispatched a dignitary of their church to study the religious systems of India and Europe, with a view to a possible change of faith at home. He is accompanied by two interpreters, and travels under protection of the Japanese foreign office.

Longfellow was once asked whether Paul Fleming in "Hyperion," was a character drawn from life. He passed a full half-minute, then answered: "He was what I thought I might have been, but I never—"

He shaded his face with one hand, and did not complete the sentence. He was, however, Herbert Spencer told an American correspondent who met him in Paris recently that he is coming to America on a tour of observation, with a view of gaining facts for his second periodical on "Political Institutions," which is partly and parcel of his composition on "The Principles of Sociology."

John Taylor, president of the Mormon church, is described as of venerable appearance, tall, broad shouldered, full-chested, with an almost square face framed by wavy hair and short, white beard, worn under the chin from ear to ear. His sunken, dark eyes are shadowed by bushy, black eyebrows.

Milais the artist is a remarkably handsome man, of lofty stature—he measures six feet two inches—and keen, refined face. He is married to a Scotch lady and has nine children. He paints all his landscapes out of doors in the open air, and is so conscientious that he never sketches a picture until he has seen the scene with his own eyes.

During a recent tornado in Terrell county, Ga. Miss Talbot was in bed when the storm struck the dwelling. She was aware that the house was blowing away and that she was being whirled through the air and was conscious when she struck the earth, but remembers nothing more until she heard her sister's call. It was just sixty yards from where the bed stood to the hole where she was found. The hole was made by the uprooting of a large oak, which was blown twenty yards away.

The worshippers in the church of St. Pulea, at Lodve, in France, were scandalized a few days ago by the conduct of a number of young men, who, during the sermon, amused themselves by letting off squibs and pelting the congregation with leaves and peas. Two of the disturbers were ejected by the pastor, but another, after having been benedicted, completed the sacrilege by setting fire to a large serpentine cracker, which flew about the church with a series of loud bangs, emitting sparks and burning several of the congregation.

There are various in Hampton Court palace which rooms in very poor circumstances. She has petitioned for the further means of calling the congregation to certain alleged jobs in the bestowal of these apartments. Not long ago it was said that a former occupant of a which was approved under $300,000, while a lady who recently received a suite, enjoyed a handsome income and kept a dozen servants.
