TWO TORONTO HORSES WIN AT THE HAMILTON ICH BACES.

Prize Fight of 119 Rounds—Mr. Hozers Will Match Manlan and O'Connor Against Ross and Lee—" City Jubilee Plate" at 4 J. Sinclair..... 6 R. Byron..... 4 A. Mitchell.... 5 A. Hoche..... 3 J. Craig....

Writing from Bronte to a friend in this city.

Frainer Charlie Butler says: "My horses have all wintered well. I intend to start work with them next week, but will do very little with them until I come to Toronto. Wild Rose is big and strong, and I think she will go kind this year. Agusta, b.m., 5 yrs., by Princeton, dam Nellie Lisle, is one of the linest province breds I ever saw. D. W. C., a lall brother to Wild Rose, is a strong, compact little horse, and a likely candidate for the Plate. Moss Rose, 6 yrs., by Princeton out of Nellie Lisle, has improved wonderfully, and I expect to have her in shape for the Guiness. I rustee, a bright chestnut gelding, is one of the grandest looking horses I ever saw, and I may say will be the best looker at the Woodbine meeting. He is by Princeton out of Nettie. St. Charles finishes my string. He is by Princeton out of Annie Laurie. I will probably ask him to parform over the timber, and if he is successful at this business he will be a candidate for the cross-country events at the Woodbine. work with them next week, but will do very Turf. Field and Farm: Wallace Ross authorizes us to say that he will row Bubear in this country a zace of from three to five miles for $1000 a side. Bubear, it is stated, will soon come to America. If he dees come he will have no trouble in making arrangements. In the excitoned Hanlan the English sculler is more $1000 a side. Bubear, it is stated, will soon come to America. If he does come he will have no trouble in making arrangements. In the opinion of Hanlan, the English sculler is more dangerous at five miles than three miles. Ross will allow him to choose the distance.

It is proposed to have a "City Jubilee Plate" amounting to not less than $500 at the May meeting of the Ontario Jockey Ciut. The money is to be subscribed by small contributions gathered from residents in this city, and the race will be a mile and a quarrer, open to all horses at weight for age, with the province-bred allowance of ave pounds.

On Thursday last a New York sport made a combination on New Orleans ruces, taking Wedding Day Kensington and Little Joe. It was 40 to 1, and he backed it for $25, standing to win $4990 if the three horses won. Wedding Day was second Kensington won, so did Little Joe. He backed the same combination at 15 to 1 for a place, put on $60, and as Wedding Day was second and the other two won, he won $750 and received his $50 back again.

Botting has begun in carnest on the Kentacky Derby. In Baltimore some important transactions have accurred this week. Among the bets made were 1600 to 50 Alcale, 500 to 50 Jim Gore, 2000 to 20 Ecle, 300 to 50 Kangstock. 1750 to 50 Nick Finzer, 6000 to 60 Analitus and $600 to 60 Luke Alexander. Jim Gore remains favorite at 10 to 1. Goliah, Laredo, Montrose and Poteen are next fancied, 15 to 1 being laid against them. In a letter to Turf, Field and Farm Mr. Joseph Rogers names Hanlan and O'Connor as the Toronto cursmen he wishes to match against Ress and Lee. Mr. Rogers letter reads. "As Ross and Lee previously issued a challenge torow any double in the whole world, I considered that a challenge for them to row any two cursmen in a small city the size of Toronto would be sure to meet with their acceptance. But it seems that they are not willing to make a race in the dark, as they state. I will now name the two carsmen—Edward Hanlan and Wm. O'Connor. If Ross and Lee are willing to row the above named gentlemen, their acceptance will insure a race." The New York paper presumes Ross and Lee will accept.

In the drying-room of a tobacce factory at Belleville, N.J., one of the most savage and longest prize-fights of latter days was witnessed on Wednesday last. The principals were two mill hands. Ned Hawkins. 23 years old, and weighing 144 pounds, and stilly lickahon, aged 25, and weighing 189 pounds. The purse of $160. for which they fought, was subscribed by 16 well-known men of a sporting turn. One hundred and twelve bare-knuckle rounds ware fought according to the London prize ring rules, and the fight lasted 2 hours and $2 minutes. McMahon was much the better man at wrestling and floored Hawkins 22 times, but was knock downs. At the end of the 112th round McMahon was mable to stand up and Hawkins was awarded the purse.

the O.J.C. May Meeting.

A great rally took place Thursday night in the Mutual-street Rink building to witness the contest between Mesers. Dissette and Godwin for the gold medal, and also between Messrs. Whelan and Ouallette for the cup.
Mr. Dissette had a bard time in holding the mophy, as the score stood one game each and four draws. Mr. Whelan still holds the cup, having won four games to his opponent's two,
and one draw. The President has donated a trophy to the club, which will be played for its a few weeks. Mr. Godwin is a stoo donated a trophy to the club, tor which ten members befrun to play Thursday night. The trophy has to be won three times before it becomes the absolute property of any member. The score
