their hands the whole course of liberal studies took one direction—never for a moment lost sight of—the propagation of Catholio faith in its most Ultramontane form. Latin versification was at that time highly prized, and their pupils were taught to write sacred poems, while the very structure of our old school friend, the Gradus ad Parnassun— a Jeaux compilation—was made subservient to the promotion of Ultramontanianism. Cardinal Newman has told us in the Apologia how he used as a schoolboy, when he firmly believed the Pope to be Antichrist, to score of the pro-papal spithets and syno-terms of abuse he could think of in their place. The Gradus was meant to insinuate popery

James Eccles, Poland, Ohio. I suffered from Constipation, and, con-sequently, from Headache, Indigestion, and Piles, for years. Ayer's Pills, which I took at the suggestion of a friend, have given me offectual relief. I commenced taking this remedy two months ago, and am now free from Constipation, the re-moval of which has caused my other troubles to disappear, and greatly im-proved my general health. - W.
