

M'BRIDE TO SIT ON CROSS BENCHES

Declares Premier Tried To Gag Him On Radial Affairs.

CALLED NO MEETING

Will Have "Something To Say" From Floor of House.

BRANTFORD, Oct. 5.—Mayor MacBride, Labor M. P. for South Brant, has asked the Speaker of the Legislature to place him on the cross-benches when the House meets again. This evening he explained his attitude in the following statement:

"I have not called any meeting of the Labor group. After the experiences of last year, when I was grossly misrepresented for my action in calling a meeting at the Walker House, Toronto, I made up my mind that in future if there is any meeting to be called it will be up to the Hon. Walter Rollo to do the calling. The men on the Chippawa Canal have perhaps felt that I should have called the meeting when the Government failed to act on the recommendations of our majority report, but there is no more reason to expect me to call a meeting than to expect any other private member of the group. The matter is one which is distinctly up to the Hon. Walter Rollo or, failing his action, to the central executive of the L. L. P.

EXPLAINS HIS VIEWS.

"I have written to the Labor members, including Messrs. Rollo and Mills, and have expressed my views in no uncertain language, but that is as far as I propose to go until the Legislature opens. Then I shall have something to say from the floor of the House, and in all probability it will not be from the Government side of the House either. There is no denying the fact that there is considerable dissatisfaction, particularly in the organized labor movement at the general course events have taken and a resolution passed by the Trades Congress of Canada, at Windsor, in condemnation of the Drury Government was couched in such language as to leave no doubts of the attitude of organized labor.

"Hon. Mr. Raney a few months ago wrote me a letter in which he took exception to my expressed opinion of the question of hydro radials, and as a minister of the crown undertook to tell me that as supporter of the Government I was not to have the freedom of speech. I have consequently asked the Speaker to place me in a position

WORLD'S BIGGEST VESSEL DESTROYED IN MAKING

BERLIN, Oct. 5.—(Associated Press Cable)—The steamship Bismarck, which would have been the world's largest vessel, has been burned at Hamburg, says a dispatch to the Zweekfuhrt. The gross tonnage of the Bismarck was said to have been 56,000, as against 54,282 of the Vaterland, now the Leviathan, the next largest steamer.

OFFICIAL WORD ON APPEAL SOON

Understood That Cabinet Will Not Change Rates Decision.

OTTAWA, Oct. 5.—(Special to The Free Press).—An official statement of the Government's decision in the railway rates appeal was not forthcoming to-night, though it is known that final consideration has been given to the subject. Premier Meighen stated that a full announcement is soon to be handed out. It is understood, however, that the appeal of the provincial, municipal and commercial bodies against the award of the railway board is not entertained. The judgment is not reversed, nor varied so far as the Government is concerned. Nevertheless, certain representations will be made to the commission by the Cabinet, and a number of considerations enumerated, with the suggestion that attention be directed thereto. They may lead to several changes.

A FULL STATEMENT.

The explanatory statement which will be made by the prime minister will elaborate fully the reasons underlying the Government's decision, and also the consideration which will be submitted for the respectful attention of the railway tribunal with the suggestion that they be acted on. It is quite clear that there is no disallowance of the judgment or diminution of the award of the commission. The increase will continue in force subject to such variations as the commission may make if after further inquiry it decides that such variation is called for. Any changes in the new tariffs will be made by the commission at the instance of the Government, rather than by the Government itself, a procedure which obviates a precedent of directly overriding the judgment of the board.

The Government's views should be exercised, not in a mere matter of difference of opinion, but only where the decision is grossly in error, or, as the prime minister put it the other day, "repugnant to public policy."

SIGHTS WHOLE FLOCK OF ICEBERGS IN STRAITS

MONTREAL, Oct. 5.—The liner, Empress of Britain, due at Quebec to-morrow, reported having sighted outside Belle Isle Straits two very large bergs and a group of others, 25 in number, and all of them large. Shipping circles here believe this volume of ice in the North Atlantic is a record. No ice was found in the straits.

AT the Theaters

AT THE GRAND.

That delightful musical play, "San Toy," which has delighted large audiences at the Grand for the past two days, will close its successful London engagement with two performances to-day. Gorgeous Oriental costumes, unusual lighting and scenic effects, a charming chorus of twenty English misses, and that well-known and favorite comedienne Miss Zara Clinton in the role of "San Toy" make for one of the season's most enjoyable productions. That P. Stuart Whyte, under whose direction "San Toy" is touring the Dominion, has spared no expense is quite evident in the lavish investiture which characterizes the play from curtain to curtain. You will have missed one of the most delightful plays of the season should you miss "San Toy."

KATZENJAMMER KIDS.

Hilarious comedy, haunting music, whistling songs, and diversified dancing are the ingredients of the well-known and well-liked musical comedy, "The Katzenjammer Kids," which will be presented at the Grand to-morrow for matinee and night only. The play is built around the characters of Hans and Fritz, who are also known as "The Shenanigan Kids" and "The Katties," and who have acquired world-wide popularity through the amusing cartoons published by hundreds of newspapers. The musical program consists of 23 song numbers and a company of 30 people is carried to portray the different characters of the Katzenjammer family and their friends. Among the many special and novel features introduced during the performance are the artful "Fashion Plates Chorus" and the pleasing "Bathing Girls Chorus."

WILLIAM FAVERSHAM

William Faversham is an actor-manager, who chooses his production because he likes them and they appeal to his artistic sense, and not merely because somebody else has had a success with something closely similar. As Mr. Faversham's likes are extraordinarily varied, the result is that his public gets an interesting series of performances and learns by degrees to associate the name of Faversham, not with a single cut-and-dried term of drama or acting, but with qualities of good taste and thoroughness in the production and performance of many different styles of work. All of which is apropos of the announcement that the star is coming to the Grand for three performances this week in his latest vehicle, "The Prince and the Pauper," which the Montreal Daily Star described as "a delightful romantic comedy which has played and done." Said the Star further: "We owe Mr. Faversham deep gratitude in presenting on our stage a dramatic version of Mark Twain's fantasy of Mark Twain's. It transports us back to the Elizabethan days and breathes an atmosphere of romance and grandeur. Mr. Faversham's engagement opens on Friday night, and there will be a matinee on Saturday in addition to the regular Saturday night performance."

AT THE ALLEN.

Many times have exhibitors, public critics and people in general, gaped and wondered at the success which has been so successful in popularity, but never has every one been so unanimous in their praise than in the case of the achievement in the roles of "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," which is showing at the Allen to-day for the first time. It is a character almost god-like, in character, a man sought after by society, of the highest principles, glorying in goodness, loved by women, and a man among men. As Hyde he is all that is fiendish, dragging in his wake the victims of his misdeeds down to the ruin which is closing about him. But the pinnacle of the drama comes in those last moments, when Jekyll finds that his evil nature has proven the stronger, that no longer can he control the changes back to his good self. To miss Barrymore in "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" is to miss one of the most powerful screen productions ever shown.

AT LOEW'S.

Alice Lake in the Metro Classic, "The Millie Wife," which has been delighting capacity audiences at Loew's for the past two days, will be seen for the last time to-day. A screaming comic, taking the cure of the fun and of the bill, Loew's Screen Pictorial is unusually interesting, while the vaudeville affords a most enjoyable diversion. Wallace Reid had a lively time of it recently trying to persuade the folks who produce his pictures to give him a vacation. "The man generally has work or two off between pictures, but when 'Sick Abed,' his last one, at Loew's to-morrow, was completed his request for a rest was met with a smile. "Why, you've been doing nothing but lie in bed for the last three weeks," said the Big Boss. "You've had a fine vacation."

AT THE PATRICIA.

Can a person within whose veins flows the blood of two distinct races allow the blood of the inferior ancestry to conquer the innate proclivity of culture? Which has the stronger appeal—the blood of the mother or the inherited instincts of the father? The answers to these questions form the theme of a thrilling photo-drama, "The Adorable Savage," which will be shown at the Patricia for the last time to-day. Edith Roberts, the piquant Universal star, has the leading role in this romance of the South Seas, and enchants in the role of Marjama, a half-breed native girl. Ralph Stock is the author of this story which was introduced under the direction of Norman Dawn.
