OF THE CONGRESSIONAL CLOSE AND AFFEWORE

ANGOM the experiment we have made it is asE. certained that the patronage of the country will support our aundal publication of the preceding and speeches made in Congress. We therefore propose to prosecute the design and confidently hope to improve and perfect it.

In giving, from week to week, a suscinct and clear report of the precedings of both branches of Congress—a brief and condenced report of the substance of the remarks of each speaker, using the precise words upon the main poinpt touched—the yeas and nays on all important questions, and coneluding the volume, after the adjournment, with on index for reference, a great deal was dence towards giving an accurate parliamentary history of the proceedings of one of the greatest and ableat geneseatatives in the would; an assembly on the deliberations of which the destinies of the free imstitutions of this country depend for their mainter, sance; and, therefore in some degree, freedom throughout the world. Our original plan extended and Appendix, to contain all the fullyipeported speeches, as prepared by the speakers thmesless; fer pube lication. This extended the, work from a single volume of 342 royal quarte pages, to twe volumes, making, together, Ilbá royal quarte pages. Thase we have furnished to subscriber's at the price of one dollar for each volume, norm or strams to be furnished, through the mail, as they fall from the press in sheets, and chargeable only with newspaper yourage, varying from a cent to a cent and a half a
