In Paris, when a local shopkeeper advertises to sell "at cost," he has to keep his word, or the Government knows why.

It may serve as a comfort to us in all our afflictions and calamities that he that loses anything, and gets wisdom by it, is a gainer by the loss.

---

He that finds truth, without loving her, is like a bat, which, though it have eyes to discern that there is a sun, yet hath so evil eyes, that it cannot delight in the sun.

---

A tender-hearted and compassionate disposition which inclines men to pity and feel the misfortunes of others, and which is for its own sake, incapable of involving any man in ruin and misery, is of all tempers of mind, the most amiable, and though it seldom receives much honor deserves the highest.
