

defined above at the final examinations in the Normal School shall be entitled to diplomas of the grade of the class to which they belong; and except with the concurrence of two thirds of the members of the Central Board of Examiners who may be present at the discussion no others shall receive diplomas. But the Central Board of Examiners may grant an elementary diploma to a teacher-in-training who fails to pass the examinations in the model school class, or the examinations for the advanced elementary diploma.

97. All holders of elementary school diplomas obtained by reaching the standards defined above shall be entitled to admission to the model school class; no others without the special permission of the Central Board of Examiners.

98. Whenever it is evident, from the report to the Superintendent, or from the papers of the candidates submitted to the Protestant Committee, in accordance with Reg. 29 (d) or for other reasons, that any particular examination has not been conducted in accordance with the provisions of the law and these regulations, the Protestant Committee of the Council of Public Instruction may declare, either, first, one or more diplomas granted at said examination, or, second, the whole or any part of the proceedings of said Central Board of Examiners at any meeting, null and void, in which case the Central Board of Examiners and the candidates who received diplomas shall be notified thereof by the Superintendent.
