

	PAGE
GENERAL NOTES—Continued.
Judicial Committee of the Privy Council.....	48
Juryman's logic, A.....	32
Juryman, The common.....	47
Judge conducting case.....	318
Law officers in England, The position of.....	191
Lawyers' fortunes.....	239
Lawyers in Parliament.....	272
Legal publications in 1894.....	16
Legislation for inebriates.....	238
Liquor laws in New York.....	320
Matthews, H., Ex-Home Secretary.....	223
Misunderstood.....	192
Negro shysters.....	64
Objection maintained.....	320
Oid time recreations.....	256
Overcrowded profession, An.....	30
Patents in 1894.....	46
Peers in practice.....	272
Pollock, Chief Baron.....	270
Pollock, Chief Baron, Saying of.....	320
Prisoners as witnesses.....	271
Queen's Counsel appointments in England.....	14
Reciprocity and the Australian Bar.....	46
Severity of sentences at Quarter Sessions.....	352
Shakespeare as reported.....	80
Sir Horace Davey—A problem.....	47
Smallest company on record.....	318
Telephone wires.....	80
Testimony by the judge.....	319
Unanimity secured.....	238
Unusual visitor in chambers.....	46
Vacation eloquence.....	319
Vacation, The long.....	239
Webster, Attorney General.....	224
Where ignorance is bliss.....	31
Wigs and robes.....	318
GRANTHAM'S (MR. JUSTICE) AUTOGRAPH BOOK.....	48
ISSUE OF SHARES AT A DISCOUNT.....	76
JOHNSON, SIR FRANCIS, IN THE NORTH WEST.....	27
JUDICIAL APPOINTMENTS IN QUEBEC.....	333
LEGAL DECISIONS IN 1894.....	23
LEGAL EDUCATION, THE LORD CHIEF JUSTICE ON.....	375
LONDON POLICE COURTS.....	283