Board of Trade Meeting

Several important matters were dealt with Wednesday afternoon at the meeting of the council of the board of trade, and the members were in session over two hours. There was a large attendance, including the president, Mr. Geogerson, and the secretary, Mr. Chas. N. Bell.

The annual meeting of the board of trade takes place on Tuesday, Feb. 4, and the election of officers will then take place as well as the receiving of the annual reports.

The Saltcoats board of trade and also a public meeting at Oak River forwarded to the board of trade resolutions recently passed concerning car shortage in the West. Copies of the resolutions passed at the last meeting of the board of trade on the subject will be forwarded these bodies.

The general grain committee of the board reported, recommending that the Winnipeg inspection of grain, so far as the present dual inspection is concerned, be final, and they suggested that this recommendation be made to the present dual inspection. The recommendation was accepted and it was pointed out that this suggestion was the original proposition of the board when the matter of the Winnipeg inspection was first introduced in the present act.

A resolution passed by the Edmonton board of trade was received to the effect that an industry was being done North Alberta by the western grain standards board in connection with the establishment of certain commercial grades for oats. It was decided to forward the matter to Sir Richard Cartwright, the minister of trade and commerce, as the standards board comes under his jurisdiction, and ask him to investigate the complaint, and if an injustice is being done, to remedy it.

Reports were received from several of the departments at Ottawa, acknowledging the receipt of resolutions of the board.

An interesting letter was received from a gentleman in Minneapolis asking which prospect there was for the establishment in Winnipeg of a manufactory of hosiery and knitted goods and enquiring if the city would offer any bonuses and concessions for the establishment of the industry. The secretary was instructed to make the effect that the matter of concessions was in the hands of the city council, and that the person proposing to establish the industry should come to Winnipeg personally and investigate.

A report was received from the joint committee of the board of trade and the city council appointed some time ago to consider the insurance rates in the city and to report on Inspector Hovee's report of the first year. The report was received and adopted and a copy has also been sent to the city council.

A copy of proposed by-laws of the board of trade to be submitted to the annual meeting was received and approved. The annual report of the council was read and adopted. The report will be printed before the annual meeting.

A Growing Business.

The public are reminded that seed time will soon be around again by the annual catalogue of J. M. Perkins, the leading seed merchant of the west which is being circulated this week. This catalogue is a product of local printing and is a credit to both its publisher and printer. It compares favorably in matter and arrangement with anything issued in the east and is a complete guide to the various kinds of grains, grasses, vegetables, and flowers which have been found by experience to be suitable for growth in this country. It is also a catalogue of garden tools and implements. Its publisher carries on a business here which is showing a most satisfactory growth. Start some sixteen years ago on a capital of one dollar it has increased year by year ever since until to-day it occupies three floors of a prominent street building and is still crowded for space. This spring over 60 boxes of seeds are being sent out by Mr. Perkins to the various storekeepers throughout the west, each of which contains a full range of flower and garden seeds ready for planting. One traveler is constantly on the road in season representing this house and another will shortly be added.
