

referred to the programme committee for final arrangements.

Mr. R. Carr-Harris reported that a hockey team had been formed in the year, with the following officers:—Capt., J. L. McDowall; Sec'y, D. Lazier; Manager, Tupper McDonald. The Executive Committee to consist of these three, together with R. Carr-Harris and R. Hiscock.

Miss McRae then favored the meeting with a recitation which was well received.

Several members of the year were then presented with cards upon which was written an unexpected topic, about which each was to speak three minutes; the result was interesting and amusing.

Mr. Sparks played a splendid instrumental and was forced to respond to an encore.

Mr. Crawford next sang a solo and also received a hearty encore.

After a very able criticism by Miss McPherson, the meeting adjourned.

Rev. J. R. Fraser, M.A., E. R. Peacock, M.A., W. W. King, M.A., are among the visitors in the Halls this week.

Rev. J. Dunlop, one of our old graduates, returned missionary from Japan, is attending lectures again.

De Nobis Nobilibus.

AS a result of Mr. McCaughan's lecture we understand it has been proposed to erect in the Carruthers' Hall a Coat of Arms, specially designed for the science faculty. Heraldically it is thus described; "Two test-tubes, fumigant, rampant, argent, on ground gules; crossed to form St. Andrew's cross; in the quarters the words surmounted by a corrumdam dollarific: supporters, dexter, one Miller hammerant, blastant; sinister, one Grant conjungent prohibitant."

IN

Overheard on a Kingston street car. Old party (to conductor, after long wait)—"When will the next car be along?" Con.—"In about a minute." O. P. (after another long wait, to conductor)—"Say, boss, is that an eight day clock you've got."

Senior (to freshman)—"Did you hear about those three eggs?"

Freshman—"No. What?"

Senior—"Too bad."
