Exchange of Public Servants: France-Canada

This program enables Canadian and French officials to learn administrative techniques of the other country's public service through courses and periods of work experience. It is administered by the Public Service Commission of Canada and organized in conjunction with the École nationale d'administration in Paris.

Canadian public servants are selected to attend courses at the École nationale d'administration for one year and an equal number of French public servants are brought to Canada for a work period in a federal or provincial department.
