

EDP security inspections

A continuous program of EDP Security Inspections is undertaken by ISS at Headquarters, on both a selected basis and at random. These are aimed at detecting breaches and violations of security.

Infractions

EDP Security Infractions are detected by manual inspections and automated infraction detection methods. As part of the Security Infraction Program, repeated violations may result in counselling by senior management or revoking of security clearance.