

reported to the Board of Governors and all States Parties. The Board of Governors shall report any findings to the Security Council of the United Nations. Procedures for such inspections, including the rights and functions of the inspecting personnel, are laid down in Protocol II.

5. A State Party, on whose territory an event has occurred, may invite the Agency to conduct an on-site inspection.

Article V

Complaints

Any State Party which finds that any other State Party is acting in breach of obligations deriving from the provisions of the Treaty, may lodge a complaint with the Security Council of the United Nations. Such a complaint shall include all possible evidence confirming its validity.

Article VI

Privileges and Immunities

1. The States Parties to this Treaty shall grant privileges and immunities to the representatives of States Parties and the Director-General and the personnel of the Agency in accordance with the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations of 18 April 1961 in order to enable them to carry out the functions entrusted to them under this Treaty.

2. Provisions regarding privileges and immunities in connection with on-site inspections are contained in Protocol II.

Article VII

Annexes

The Protocols I and II to this Treaty constitute integral parts of the Treaty.

Article VIII

Amendments

1. At any time after the entry into force of this Treaty, any State Party may propose amendments to the Treaty or to any annexed Protocol. Any proposal for an amendment shall be communicated to the Depositary, who shall circulate it to all States Parties and seek their views on whether a conference should be convened to consider the proposal. If a majority, that shall not be less than thirty of the States Parties, including the nuclear-weapon States, so agree, the Depositary shall promptly convene a conference to which all States Parties shall be invited. The Conference may adopt amendments proposed, if a
