

ARTICLE 13

Existing Rights and Obligations

This Agreement does not affect any right or obligation of a Party that results from other international agreements to which it is party.

ARTICLE 14

Dispute Settlement

1. The Parties shall endeavour, in good faith, to amicably resolve, through consultations, any dispute between them that arises from the interpretation or implementation of this Agreement. The Parties shall hold consultations as soon as reasonably practicable under the circumstances.
2. In particular, the Parties shall endeavour to resolve through consultations any dispute arising from the implementation of Article 11 or the Annex to this Agreement. If that dispute is not resolved within a reasonable time, the Parties may jointly decide to refer it to arbitration. Arbitration is subject to the Arbitration Rules of the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL).

ARTICLE 15

Entry into Force, Amendment and Termination

1. Each Party shall notify the other Party, in writing, once it has completed its internal procedures required for the entry into force of this Agreement. This Agreement shall enter into force on the date of the later notification.
2. This Agreement shall remain in force for an initial period of five years, being automatically renewed for subsequent five-year periods, unless either Party notifies the other Party in writing of its intention not to renew the Agreement, at least ninety days prior to its expiry date.
3. The Parties may agree, in writing, to amend this Agreement. Any such amendment shall enter into force in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 1.
4. Either Party may terminate this Agreement by giving six months' notice in writing to the other Party.
