tional Park. The balance of the lands will be selected in other areas which have not been identified.

The 1930 transfer of resources agreement with the province of Alberta requires that any lands no longer required for national park purposes be transferred to the government of Alberta. This is one essential step in the transfer of lands to the Indians. A second essential step is that lands cannot be removed from a national park without the concurrence of parliament.

The minister must arrive at a decision after weighing all of his responsibilities. All ministers must do this. Where major issues are involved a collective decision is taken by cabinet. In the case at hand the approval of parliament will also be necessary. Thus, without accepting the proposition that any conflict of interest exists, it is clear that full public consideration and debate will take place before any steps are taken to alter the boundaries of the park.

Mr. Paproski: After the next election.

The Acting Speaker (Mrs. Morin): The motion to adjourn the House is now deemed to have been adopted. Accordingly, this House stands adjourned until tomorrow at 2 p.m.

At 10.35 p.m. the House adjourned, without question put, pursuant to Standing Order.
