

June 2nd, 1925.

Count de Maleissye-Meluy,
26, Rue Barbet-de-Jouy, VII,
Paris, France.

My dear Count de Maleissye-Meluy:

I am sorry to tell you that your son was not able to see Sir Arthur Currie, owing to the fact that when he arrived the General was in hospital for a short period. His plans have been somewhat changed but at present it seems as if he would be in France about the middle of August.

I hope we shall shortly hear from Mr. Gonthier that your son and nephew are established in Ottawa.

Yours faithfully,

Wilfrid Bovey.
