

October 27th, 1924.

Dean W. Sherwood Fox,
Western University,
London, Ont.

My dear Dean Fox:-

Thank you for your letter of October 24th.

Let me assure you that I appreciated more than I can say the opportunity of participating in the ceremonies at Western University. I was very much impressed by all I saw and am convinced that you have a very bright future indeed.

Let me once more thank you and the Board of Governors for your kindness to me personally in granting me the Honorary Degree of LL.D., a distinction which I prize most highly.

Yours faithfully,

Principal.