

CHAPTER VI.

CLASS WORK.

PAGE	PAGE	PAGE
The Class an Organic Unity, . . . 75	Voice Culture, . . . 81
Subtile Forces, . . . 76	The Pupils should do the Work, 82
The Teacher should Prepare the Lesson, . . . 77	Require Full Attention and Self-control, . . . 83
Show Pupils how to Study, . . . 78	Desire for Knowledge should be Encouraged, . . . 83
Position of the Pupils, . . . 79	Place-taking and Prizes, . . . 85
Position and Manner of the Teacher, . . . 90

CHAPTER VII.

READING.

Aims, . . . 86	Fluency, . . . 91
The Ability to Read a Means of Knowledge, . . . 87	Pronunciation, . . . 93
Importance of Early Training, . . . 87	Expression, . . . 93
Oral Reading, . . . 89	Concert Reading, . . . 95
Distinctness, . . . 90	Criticism, . . . 96

CHAPTER VIII.

FIRST STEPS IN READING.

Different Methods, . . . 97	Advantages and Disadvantages of the Phonic Method, . . . 102
The Alphabetic Method, . . . 98	The Word and Phonic Methods should be used, . . . 102
Phonetic Method, . . . 99	Suggestions, . . . 103
The Phonic Method, . . . 99
The Word Method, . . . 100
The Sentence Method, . . . 100

CHAPTER IX.

SPELLING.

Aims and Means, . . . 112	Suggestions, . . . 113
---------------------------	------------------------