TWO LETTERS to the ARCHBISHOP of CANTERBURY. By HENRY BATHURST, L.L.B. Archdeacon of Norwich. 1s.

An ADDRESS to the CLERGY, on CHURCH REFORM, with remarks on the Plans of LORD HENLEY and Dr. BURTON. By the Rev. WILLIAM PULLEN, B.A. Rector of Little Gidding, Huntingdonshire. Second Edition, with a prefatory Letter to the LORD CHANCELLOR.

"We may again have occasion, in the progress of this great Question to refer to the little Work of Mr. Pullen, for the more effectually impressing upon our readers the opinions of a rational and reflecting Clergyman, upon some of the most essential branches of the whole Ecclesiastical system. His remarks, addressed more directly to the Bishops, are extremely useful, and seem to borrow more from the matter at which they point, than from the disposition of the Author,—a pungency by which some of the Right Reverend persons may be more edified than pleased." .. Times.

"But, upon this topic, (improved capacity and fitness for his sacred trust in each Candidate for Holy Orders,) the valuable Pamphlet of Mr. Pullen, from which an extract was inserted in the Times of yesterday, presents so many strong and pertinent observations, that we cannot refrain from subjoining a considerable portion of them." Times.
