

INDEX, No. 1.

459

Eight per cent. loan, opposition to	46
Embargo, not duly enforced by Mr. Jefferson	51
Embargo, factious clamor against	136
Embargo, a wise, prudent and necessary measure	137
Embargo, view of	138
Embargo, British proclamation invites to violation of	140
Embargo, comparison of, with acts passed during the preceding administrations	143
Embargo, act to enforce the	144
Embargo, flagrantly violated, 144—repealed	160
Embargo, recommended to congress by merchants of New York	171
English Canaille detest foreigners of all descriptions	337
England, magnanimous example of	338
England struggling for her existence, a mere delusion	366
English outrages, details of	366
England more ably defended in America than in London,	127
England, elaborate defences of	138
England carried on with France the trade interdicted to the United States	253
Errors of the democratic party	36
Erskine arrangement, liberal and magnanimous,	172
Erskine arrangement, loudly and universally applauded	176
Erskine arrangement, newspaper extracts respecting	179, 180, 181
Erskine arrangement, analysis of	183
Erskine arrangement, cause of its rejection	183
Erskine, Mr. George Canning's instruction to	185
Exports of the United States, statement of the	433
Exports of the United States, increase of	83
Exports of the United States, foreign and domestic, 276—foreign, 279—domestic, 281—various comparisons of the	277, 278, &c.
Faction, consequences of	36
Faction, deleterious effects of, respecting impressment	220
Federal convention, proceedings in	73
Federal party, division among	79
Federal constitution, formed with great difficulty	80
Federal party, their unavailing struggles for power	444
Federal constitution, happy consequences of	439
Federalists, errors of	73
Federalists, address of the author to	344
Federalists pursued the policy they reprobated in the democrats	38
Federalists in 1793-4 and 5, friends of order and good government,	334
Foreigners, illiberality of prejudices against	337
Foreigners, list of, who supported the cause of America	342
Foreign commerce, progress of	433
Fort Washington, capture of	75
Fox's (Charles James) blockade from the Elbe to Brest	120
France, American injustice to	106
France, urbanity of—hideous change in its manners	36
French influence, utter want of foundation of	118, 177
Gardiner, Rev. J. S. J. extracts from his political sermons	323
General government, wonderful pusillanimity of the	423
General tickets, extremely partial and unjust	417
Gerrymanderism, definition and injustice of	413, 414, 415