

	Page
ding (317); The big Trout Fish and Game Club (318); Game Warden (318); The Thirty-one Mile Lake Club (319); Wright Fish and Game Club (320); "King of the Gatineau" (320); Samuel Bingham (321); A Great Log Jam (321); Logging on the Gatineau (322); The Yankee Among the Shanties (323).
DOWN THE OTTAWA	324
Wood Gleaners (324); Rockland (325); Montebello (326); Caledonia Springs (327); A $15,000 Banquet (328).
THE OTTAWA TRANSPORTATION CO.....	329
DESCHENES LAKE.....	330
Sub-headings are the many stops on the way to Chats Falls.
THE RIDEAU LAKES TRIP.....	334
Kingston and the Thousand Islands (335).
NEW YEARS'S DAY IN HULL.....	338
La Guignolee (337); "I Always Kiss the Pretty Girls of Ten and under" or "Auntie How Old are You?" (337); Musical Santa Claus (338); Purer French in Canada than in France (338); The French in Canada (339); Highest Offices in Canada Held by Frenchmen (339); Descendants of the Famous (339).
ARNPRIOR	340
Carp (340); Canada so full of Beauty that Canadians don't Realize it (341); An Indian Grave.—A Memory (342); Men of Large Heart (343).
PEMBROKE	343
Rube and the Colonel go up to "Days Washin" or the Pleasures of Lake Allumette (345-349).
FROM PEMBROKE TO ALGONQUIN PARK.....	349
"The Familiar Deer" (349); Aladin Story or How J. R. Booth got Started—How he Bought his First Limit (350-352); Whitney (352); A Biograph Picture (352).
ALGONQUIN NATIONAL PARK	353
With an account of how Rube and the Colonel made the tour with Ross and Balfour, in which chapter are some good stories by the Scotch preacher and others.
PARRY SOUND	362
Fair Wages will Keep the Boys at Home (362); "The Parry Sound Wink" (363); A Fisher and Hunter's Resort (363); Timber and Lumber District (363); Rube's Watch too Slow for the Saw (364); Parry Sound Jail (364); Municipal Success (365); "August Night on Georgian Bay" (365).
DESERTED VILLAGE OF THE NORTH.....	366
Christian Endeavor Clark (366); Cherry Cottage (366); Madame Albani and her First Piano (367); Rube and the Colonel go to the Aylmer Fair where Rube takes First Premium (368); The Colonel Pays Two Fares to see the Fair (368); The Hull Electric Company (369); Victoria Yacht Club (369); More Courtesy to the Stars and Stripes (369); The Black Story (370).
A DAY AT CHELSEA.....	370