

NEWS OF SPECIAL INTEREST TO WOMEN

USE PINK VELVET FOR PARTY FROCK

Quaint Side Draperies of Chiffon Featured in Modish Gown.

BODICE IS VICTORIAN

Puff Sleeves and Pretty Bead Trimming Enhance Unique Dress.

Cascade and numerous other quaint ripple effects over the hips are featured in the newest and most approved models for evening wear which are conceived in the famed fashion centre of the world.

A decided dignity is prevalent in the designs of dance and dinner frocks being shown for the approaching season, and the artistic and rather elaborate arrangement of draperies is a conspicuous note.

Laces continue to figure largely in all the tiered models, while the combination of several materials—chiefly chiffon, silk and embroidered gauze—made use of by all exclusive designers. With side draperies and panelled come front panels and apron effects of unique arrangement, involving voluminous width of materials exquisite in texture, and weighted with exquisite bead trimming, oriental in color and unusual pattern.

Velvets are not tabooed from the realm of evening attire, some of the quaintest dance frocks being partly fashioned of this rich and effective material. One charming little model was extremely full skirted, the front and back panel sections were velvet with full gathered side tiers of embroidered chiffon built over a full underskirt, ruffled and bound with satin baby ribbon.

The dainty little bodice was tightly fitted in the popular Victorian style and fashioned of the velvet. A ruche of chiffon outlined the low round neck and chiffon also constituted the short puff sleeves, finished with narrow bands of bead embroidery. A long scarf of pink tulle, the same shade as this unusual costume, was worn in the approved style, draped about the neck. High boot slippers, strapped, and fashioned of white kid, trimmed with rhinestones, completed the toilet.

MANY REPORTS READ OF PATRIOTIC WORK

Mrs. Baker Receives Vote of Thanks at Meeting of Municipal Chapter, I. O. D. E.

Many reports were read, and much patriotic work done during the summer months was chronicled, at the meeting of the Municipal Chapter I.O.D.E., yesterday afternoon at 72 Bloor street west.

Mrs. R. S. Wilson presided and Miss Dixon gave an interesting report of the annual meeting in Halifax.

A vote of thanks was given Mrs. Baker for her assistance given the organization on "rosedays". The members of the press also received a very cordial vote of thanks for their advance notices and reports in connection with the event. Many interesting letters have been received in acknowledgment of the comfort sent to the men at the front, some by private members and others to the Chapter.

THEATRES

"TONIGHT'S THE NIGHT."

Direct from the famous Gaiety Theatre London, has come the highly successful musical comedy production, "Tonight's the Night," which local lovers of this joyous, sparkling and tuneful entertainment are to revel in at the Alexandra next week, beginning with a special Thanksgiving matinee. It has been a long time since Toronto enjoyed a big real musical comedy of the first rank and this event will be doubly notable as the first of its kind of the new season. The London Gaiety is celebrated the world over as the supreme centre of modern musical comedy and altho this production comes here by way of New York, Boston and Philadelphia, it is declared to be the simon-pure London article.

SAM MANN AT SHEA'S.

Sam Mann, always a favorite in Toronto, headlines the bill at Shea's next week in his amusing comedy sketch "The New Leader." He will be assisted by his usual capable company, Kenneth Casey, a clever juvenile comedian, plays a piano, sings acceptably and also uses a cornet and violin in his offering. Leonard Gaultier's imitated toy shop should prove to be a great hit with the children. Marie Fitzgerald has an amusing monologue. Corcoran and Dingle, Rawls and Von Kauffman, Hubert Dyer and Company, Bertie Ford, complete photo plays complete a bright, attractive bill.

JULIAN ELLINGE IN "COUSIN LUCY."

Julian Ellinge will appear at the Grand next week, opening with a special holiday matinee on Monday, in his new musical comedy, "Cousin Lucy," and he is sure to attract greater interest than ever before, not only because he is one of the most popular stars in the city, but because this will be our first opportunity of seeing the last play written by that famous dramatist Charles Klein, who went down on the Lusitania.

PEG O' MY HEART.

The little Irish lassie "Peg" of "Peg O' My Heart," guaranteed to be just as Irish and human, will visit the Alexandra for a week, beginning Oct. 18, and she is sure to make the presentation with an excellent company headed by Miss Florence Martin in the titular role.

"IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE"

"It Pays to Advertise," the great big Cohan and Harris success that has been crowding the Geo. M. Cohan Theatre, New York City, for the past fifty-two weeks, thereby breaking all records for a continuous run in so far as a farce offering is concerned, comes to the Grand week of October 18.

HASTINGS' SHOW AT GAYETY.

The "Hastings' Big Show" with Dan Coleman, America's foremost Irish comedian, one of the best organizations of its kind, will be seen here at the Gaiety Theatre next week. Harry Hastings, the producer, promises that every feature of the show is new, including a bright two-act musical sketch called "Till Follow You." This feature of the show is reported to be the most sumptuous in a branch of the entertainment. Every member of the splendid organization has an opportunity to display his or her ability in the "Hastings' Big Show," especially Miss Florence Darley.

BUNGALOW GIRLS AT HIPPO.

In "The Bungalow Girls" the Hippodrome management has secured as the headline attraction of next week's bill one of the brightest miniature musical comedies in vaudeville. Instrumental selections feature the offering. Tense situations, thrilling adventures and wonderful scenery in the mystery serial "The Girl of the Navy" combined with the stellar work of Lilian Lorraine and William Courtleigh in the central roles have made this serial greatly appreciated by Hippodrome patrons. The Seven White Blackbirds; George Hussey, who is a ventriloquist; the Tossing Austins present their novelty juggling act; the Velde Trio; Siegel and Mathews; Cole and Wood; with unique feature films, complete the bill.

PARISIAN FLIRTS AT STAR.

At the Star Theatre a veritable treat is in store for local lovers of up-to-date burlesque and musical comedy. The attraction is Charles Robinson and his "Parisian Flirts," an organization which has long won its spurs as the best entertainment of its kind on the circuit. The company is composed of fifty people, mostly girls, and should find approval with the most blasé seeker after tin de steele and wholesome amusement.

OPERA SEASON AT ARENA.

Like a snowball going down hill is the growing enthusiasm of the Toronto public for the forthcoming season at the Arena of the Boston Grand Opera Company and the Powers ballet Russe. The playhouses of Chicago have never known greater enthusiasm than that which greeted the opening performance of the company at the Auditorium on October 4. Auber's "Dumb Girl of Portici" which will also be the opening bill at Toronto on Oct. 21st, took the audience by storm.

THANKSGIVING CONCERT.

At Mr. Campbell's annual Thanksgiving concert in Massey Hall, on Monday night, there will be presented the following splendid patriotic programme: Quartette, "The Mariners of England," the Adnan Quartette; read-Clarice Spencer; song, "The Recessional," Miss Florence Mulholland; quartette, "The Cossack," the Adnan Quartette; reading, "Trifles," Miss Spencer; song, "Dark Lochnagar," Miss Mulholland; piano solo, (a) Nocturne in F Sharp Major, (b) Tarantella in G Flat Major, Dr. Harvey Robb; the Adnan Quartette; martial song, "MacGregor's Gathering," Miss Mulholland; reading, "The Green Paper" (a new version of the song of hate), Miss Spencer; Irish song, "The Minstrel Boy," Miss Mulholland; quartette, "Rule Britannia," the Adnan Quartette. God Save the King. The seat plan is now open at the hall and at the Bell Piano rooms, 146 Yonge street.

Boy is Missing. Edward Lee, fifteen years of age, and son of John G. Lee, 859 Bloor street, has been missing from home since Sept. 29. His parents are of the opinion that he may have gone to the country seeking work.

ADDRESSES HEARD AT FIRST MEETING

Sir Henry Pellatt Chapter, I.O.D.E., Commenced Season Yesterday.

ARE LOYAL IN QUEBEC

Mrs. A. W. McDougald, Organizer, Gives Interesting Talk on Eastern Province.

Two very interesting addresses were given at the first meeting for the season of the Sir Henry Pellatt Chapter, I.O.D.E., held in Columbus Hall yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. A. W. McDougald, organizing secretary of the Daughters of the Empire for Quebec, told of the splendid patriotic work done by the women of that province. When the war broke out, the I.O.D.E. was at once ready, while other women had to come from summer resorts in order to organize. A thousand pounds of wool were given the I.O.D.E. and this was distributed mainly among the habitant women who worked so well that 7000 Balaklava caps were sent in before the camp broke up at Valcartier. The women also wished to send to the 5000 men at Salisbury, from the beginning, 12,000 pairs in all have been sent, many made by the sisters of the different religious communities.

Mrs. McDougald stated that there were no more loyal citizens anywhere than the French-Canadian. They are, she declared, the same now as when they defended the country in 1812 against an overwhelming force. They were Canada's first citizens, and the descendants of men who made Canada a worth while.

The second address was given by Allan Dunn, of Oxford, England, now in Toronto preparing for the coming of the Boston Opera Company. Mr. Dunn briefly traced the history of opera from the days of mythological details about the personnel of those who will take part. All are either all or friendly neutrals, and Madame Butterfly is a little lady who really had her birth and bringing up in the "Land of the Rising Sun."

Reports of the chapter showed that during the summer, 350 quarts of milk, 1100 pounds of bread, and 792 garments had been distributed. At summer resort, one member, Mrs. Salter, had raised $40.80 and Mrs. T. F. Phelan, $35.00 for patriotic work. "The High and Holy Church" had made $70 by a tea and had raised $180 in a branch organized by them in Jeffery, Ontario. Mrs. Ambrose Small presided and the president of the Sir Henry Pellatt Chapter was accepted with regret. Mrs. Diamond was elected to the vacant office.

GIVE SACRED RECITAL.

The first of a series of recitals of sacred music will be given at St. Augustine's Church, Parliament and Spruce streets, at the close of the evening service tomorrow by the choir and orchestra of the church. Every Sunday morning there is a service of intercession for the country's forces on active service.

A Piano For 50c a Week. Here is a chance for a few people to get a fine square piano by paying 50c a week. Call at or write to Ye Heintzman Hall, 149-155-157 Yonge street, Toronto, for full particulars. Every instrument in fine condition and guaranteed.

THANKSGIVING RECITAL.

At College Street Presbyterian Church on Monday evening, Alexander will present several patriotic sketches, "For Belgium" by J. J. Bell, which is a vivid portrayal of an epic little country, the invasion of the heroic Mrs. Fred Score, soprano; and James Quarrington, baritone, and Mr. Harold Spencer, pianist.

TORTURING SCIATICA

A Severe Sufferer Cured Through the Use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Fierce darting pains—pains like red hot needles being driven through the flesh—in the thigh; perhaps down the legs to the ankles—that's sciatica. None but the victim can realize the torture. But the sufferer need not grow discouraged, for there is a cure in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These pills make new, rich, red blood, which soothes and strengthens the feeble and restores the sufferer to cheerful activity. In proof we give the statement of Mr. Thomas D. Leinster, Waukegan, Ill., who says: "I was attacked with sciatica, which gradually grew worse until I was confined to my bed. For three months I had to be shifted and turned in my bed, as I was utterly unable to help myself. I consulted several doctors and took drugs and medicines, getting no benefit, and I began to believe I would be a chronic sufferer. Finally, I was prevailed upon to use Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and after taking them for about six weeks I was able to get out of bed. From that time I was free from this terrible and painful malady."

The most stubborn cases of sciatica will yield to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills if the treatment is persisted in. These pills are sold by all medicine dealers or will be sent by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by addressing The Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont.

MOSHER DANCES AT COLUMBUS HALL.

The unanimous verdict of those attending the dances at Columbus Hall, directed by Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Mosher, is that Toronto has at last a dance hall worthy of patronage. The commodious accommodations afforded the guests, and the convenient arrangement of every detail for comfort and pleasure inspire enthusiastic approval. The dances have always been good, but this year two additional surroundings, added irresistible zest to the selections. These dances, conducted on the popular European plan, will be held every Tuesday and Saturday. A new syndicate fox trot, introduced by Mr. and Mrs. Mosher, has created favorable comment.
