

CONTENTS.

	Page.
Report of Capt. W. R. Abercrombie, Second United States Infantry:
Secretary of War Root's letter of transmittal.....	7
Orders and special instructions.....	9
Narrative of journey from Washington, D. C., to Valdez, via Fort Keogh, Livingston, and Seattle.....	11
Selection of skilled men for trail crew.....	12
How the expedition was outfitted	12-13
Arrival of expedition at Valdez.....	14
A vivid pen sketch of scenes at Valdez.....	15
The dreaded scourge of scurvy.....	15
Quartermaster's Agent Brown's sententious exclamation on the situation among prospectors.....	15
A thrilling description of a "glacial demon" by a crazed Swede.....	16
Scenes at disembarkation at Valdez.....	16-17
How destitute miners and prospectors were relieved.....	17-18
Lack of practical knowledge of mining by the average prospector.....	18-19
How the liquor traffic was throttled at Valdez.....	20-21
Construction of trans-Alaskan military road.....	21-26
Establishment of an American postal service.....	26-27
Exploration of the Copper River drainage during season of 1899.....	27
Valdez and its advantages as a port.....	27-28
Mineral and agricultural resources of the Copper River Valley.....	28-29
Freight rates of marine transportation from Seattle to Yukon River points.....	30
Prospective profits for cattle speculators in the Copper River Valley region.....	30
Animals best adapted for service in Alaska	30
The best pack saddles for service in Alaska.....	31-32
Necessity for a large hay meadow reservation in Alaska	33
Of what the cantonment at Valdez consists.....	34
Recommendations for the season of 1900.....	35-36
Subreport of Charles Brown, Quartermaster's agent:
Terrible sufferings on the Valdez glacier	37-38
The reign of scurvy in the Lower Copper River region	38
Horrible deaths on the Valdez glacier	38
How scurvy patients and destitute persons were relieved.....	39-40
The swarms of fish in Valdez Bay	42
Repairs and improvements at Valdez	42-43
Subreport of Dr. Leroy J. Townsend:
A diagnosis of scurvy.....	44-45
Preventive measures.....	46