

- Burns, Robert, 325, 326.
 Byron, Lord, 325.
- Cabal, the, 234.
 Cabot, 126.
 Caesar, Julius, see Britain.
 Calals, 90, 91; loss of, 159.
 Camperdown, battle of, 314.
 Canada in Victorian era, 355.
 Canute, king of England, 24, 25; his treatment of church, 24; sons of, 25.
 Cartwright, 304.
 Cavaliers, 215.
 Cawnpore, massacre of, 358, 359.
 Caxton, William, 120, 121.
 Chamberlain, Joseph, 366, 367.
 Charles I, 205-221; marriage of, 205; war with Spain, 206, 207; Parliament in time of Charles, 207, 209-211; Petition of Right, 207, 208; Laud and the Puritans, 208, 209; the Prayer-book in Scotland, 212, 213; the Long Parliament, 213-216; the state of Ireland, 215; Civil War, 216-221; death of king, 221.
 Charles II, 227-240; court of, 227; Corporation Act, 228; the loyalty of Parliament, 228; Act of Uniformity, Five-Mile Act, 229; religious persecution in Scotland, 230; the emigration of the Quakers, 230-232; the Great Plague, the Great Fire, 232; the Dutch War, 233, 234; treaty of Dover, 234; Declaration of Indulgence, 235; Test Act, Exclusion Bill, 236; Habeas Corpus Act, 238; Popish Plot, 239, 240.
 Chartists, the, 337, 338.
 Chaucer, Geoffrey, 103, 104.
 Church, the, Christianity established in England, 12, 13, 14; monasteries founded, 13, 14; Christianisation of the Danes, 17; Edward the Confessor and the church, 26; the Crusades, 41-44, 57, 71; John's quarrel with, 61, 62; white friars and black friars, 70, 71; in time of Richard II, 99-101; begging friars, 99; Statute of Praemunire, 101; John Wycliffe, 101, 102; persecution of Lollards, 110, 112; Statute of Heretics, 110; Wolsey and the church, 127-133; Thomas Cromwell, 133-141; Henry VIII as head of church, 134, 135; monasteries during the Middle Ages, 136-141; Pilgrimage of Grace, 140; the Bible, 141-146; religious state of England in reign of Edward VI, 148, 149; Protestantism, 148, 149; persecution of Roman Catholics and the English Prayer-book, 152; in time of Mary, 156, 157; persecution of Protestants, 159; religious policy of Elizabeth, 161; Act of Uniformity, 162; Puritans, 165-167; Roman Catholics under Elizabeth, 167, 168; Puritans in time of Charles I, 208, 209; the Prayer-book in Scotland, 212, 213; dissenters in time of Charles II, 228-230; occasional conformity, 263; rise of Methodists, 277-279.
 Clive, Robert, 287-289.
 Cobden, Richard, 340.
 Coinage, 51; coinage debased, 152; reform of coinage, 257.
 Columbus, 126.
 Commonwealth, 221-227; Ireland reduced to submission, 221, 222; Scotland overcome, 222, 223; war with Holland, 224; expulsion of Rump Parliament, 224, 215; military rule, 225, 226; an alliance with Portugal, 226.
 Copenhagen bombarded, 311, 314.
 Corn Laws, 339, 340; abolition of, 341.
 Cornwallis, Lord, 295.
 Corporation Act, 228; repealed, 327.
 Coverdale, Miles, 144.
 Cranmer burned, 159.
 Crécy, battle of, 88, 89, 90.
 Crimean War, 342, 343.
 Crompton, 304.
 Cromwell, Oliver, 217, 218, 220; in