HOIST THE BLACK FLAG.

Editorial in The New York Outlook, October 21. Recent disclosures of low moral standards, cheap deceits and callous indifference to the rights of others on the part of men of financial and business prominence have sorely hurt those who long for a decent world to live in; for an unclean world is as intolerable to morally sensitive people as is an unclean house to physically sensitive people. No American who loves his country and remembers Emerson's definition of its mission to breed superior men and women can fail to hang his head in shame over the continuous revelation of lack of principle and cheapness of character in men who have been greatly trusted and have proved grossly untrustworthy. The shame of the United States senate, with several members who have been under indictment or known to be unscrupulous corruptionists; of department officers of high station selling information as if it were produce; of men intrusted with vast funds for purposes which ought to make their custody a sacred charge, greedily using the money of other people for their own benefit-these things are ominous and menacing in the last degree.

Americans are not more dishonest than other men; but they sin against a greater light, for in this country all enterprises of a public character are supposed to be carried on for the public benefit. Our politicians are never weary of talking about the "sacred rights of the people." altho there is no country in which those rights are more flagrantly violat-ed. Our offenses are rank and smell to heaven because we protest so much; our infidelities are the more damnable because we profess such a lofty faith. The time has come for frankness with ourselves and the world; if we cannot be decent, let us at least be truthful. Let us purge ourselves of dishonesty and hypocrisy and be what we pretend to be; or ourselves of dishonesty and hypocrisy and be what we pretend to be; or let us preach squarely the doctrine of greed and success without scruples and keep on doing what we are now doing. Let United States senators stop talking about national Meals, or let them cease to disgrace the coun-try by corrupting legislatures, dividing profits with land syndicates and accepting from corporations salaries which they have not earned; it is time for them to make their choice; the country is in no mood to stand further hypocrisy. It demands that the thieves take their hands off the sacred things of the nation; let them ply their trade if they must, but let them forchear to touch with polluted speech the ideals, the aspirations and the forbear to touch with polluted speech the ideals, the aspirations and the hopes of the nation; they have done their best to destroy these things.

And it is high time for the officers of some life insurance companies to cease talking about the duty of providing for one's family, the solemn obligation of a man to think of the welfare of his children after he is gone the beauty of present self-denial for the sake of the dear ones dependent on one's exertions. If the gentlemen whose dealings with the vast funds committed to their care have recently come to light have any sense of hu mor, they will put an end to the sham philanthropy which they have preached for business purposes, and make their appeals for patronage with manly frankness. If they cannot be honest, let them at least drop the mask of honor and deal squarely with the public. Let them make an end to all the sentimental nonsense about widow and orphans, and say bluntly: "We want your money; pay us the largest possible premiums and we will give you the smallest possible returns. We will accept your money as a trust and administer it for our own advantage; we will pay ourselves enormous salaries and, in one form or another, pension the different members of our families; we will load the management of the busi-ness you commit to us with the heaviest possible expense of administra-tion; and we will use your money in all kinds of enterprises for our own benefit, employing as much of it as we see fit in buying legislators and contributing to campaign funds." If this policy of frankness is adopted, the country will respect the courage if it cannot trust the honesty of the men whom it now holds to be not only betrayers of its honor, but hypocrites as well.

It is high time for plain dealing; the country is weary of scandals in high places; of men of reputation who are suddenly discovered to be without character; of moral sham and humbug among the eminently respect-able. There are too many pious schemers; far too many well-behaved self-seekers. If we cannot be honest, we can at least stop pretending to be what we are not. Let us hoist the black flag and stop salling as a missionary ship.

proceedings had lasted from 8 o'clock and this was the third hearing: Roderick J. Parke, consulting elec-trical engineer of Toronto, was in the witness box for an hour and a half. He informed the court that he had in-spected the spot at the corner of McCaul and Queen-streets and found that apparently the rails were not in the condition to keep a car from leav-ing the tracks if it were going at any-thing above a low speed. Hence 1 is considered that the rails were ineffi-cient. They were slightly worn at the siant and that, in his opinion, caused the car to leave them. The witness exhibited sections of the rails taken-as he said-from actual impressions. He added that he had made the in-spection at 11.30 on the morning of the accident. He did not think it possible for the car to skid 150 yards at the speed it was traveling. He could not see how skidding of a car could ac-celerate its speed along a down grade.

Experts Disagree. Other expert witnesses were C. K. He was accompanied to the corner of Queen and McCaul-streets yestarday by E. H. Keating.
