A number of C.P.R. detectives are watching the crossing near Franklin-avenue, and crossing there or the tracks in that vicinity. There are breaks in the wires along the track, and people have been accustomed to cross at this point for many years. There is no other place to cross except by going to Edmund-street or Symington-avenue-four blocks. Franklin-avenue is a blind street, as also is Edwinton.

Lighting at Downview. A little ball of lightning danced about the farmhouse of James Caruthers, Con. 4, York Township, yesterday morning, and frightened the inmates, as well as giving some of them a severe shock. Mrs. Caruthers was preparing dinner at the time, and the family and hired men had come in, and were standing or sitting about the kitchen.

The ball shot thru the ceiling, struck the wall, passed between two persons sitting together, hit the glass of a picture on the wall, smashed it to atoms, and turned the picture as black as
