In connection with the immigration

A citizen of Boston, Mass., for the greater part of his life, Mr. Flannigan came to this city with his family about five years ago. He was interested in the shoe business and bought over the Cook-Fitzgerald Company upon his arrival, subsequently selling the same concern to the Scott-Chamberlain people of Galt. Dr. Gould has recently visited the mission fields of Northwest Canada. "The crisis of the world war for democracy is being fought in France, there are other great movements in the offing, the speaker said.

Missionary Difficulties.

Referring to the difficulties confronting the missionary work, the speaker cited the effect of the war on currency. China, with a natural tendency to unstable currency in normal times, suffered most. Before the war one gold dollar was worth in China two Mexican silver dollars, which are used largely in China. Last year one gold dollar was worth only $1,17. which means a tremendous loss to missionary accounts.
