TO BREAK GERMAN ALLIANCE

Pan-Slavic Exposition in Moscow Will Work to Win Away Austria.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 1.—A proposition to hold a great pan-Slavic exposition in Moscow in 1910 is the most definite outcome of the visit to St. Petersburg, which comes to an end today, of MM. Kramarcz, Hribar, Glebovitsky and Markov, Slav deputies in the Austrian parliament. The idea has been received with great favor, and committees have been appointed to report on the formation of a Slavic bank. Closer commercial relations between the Slav races have been advocated, but no definite steps to this end have been taken.

The leaders of the conferences that have been held here have made every endeavor to conceal the anti-German nature of their propaganda. The key-note of all the speeches made, however, is purely cultural, and that it has no political significance. The keynote of many of the speeches made, however, is purely cultural, and that it has no political significance. The keynote of many of the speeches made, however, is purely cultural, and that it has no political significance.

But the Polish and Macedonian questions are regarded as rocks upon which the pan-Slavic movement is extremely likely to be wrecked, and for these reasons, the leaders kept the Polish problem in the background and decided not to invite representatives of the Balkan Slavs, who would be unwilling to subordinate their particular interests to the general pan-Slavic problem.

DIED AT BALL GAME.

GLOVERVILLE, N.Y., June 4.—M. Sexton Northrup, a member of the Northrup Glove Manufacturing Co., of Johnston, and one of the best-known glove manufacturers of the country, died suddenly late this afternoon while watching a ball game.

The home team had just made what proved to be the winning run when Mr. Northrup, who was an ardent member of the game, fell back unconscious. Mr. Northrup was 64 years of age.

When the doctor arrived, he found Mr. Northrup in a state of collapse, and he was taken to the hospital, where he died.

His death was a great loss to the community, and his family is being comforted by friends and neighbors.

HOME MISSIONS FEATURE OF ASSEMBLY'S MEETING

Financial Disturbances Have Been Felt—Work Along G.T.P.—College Reports.

WINNIPEG, June 4.—(Special.)—At the morning session of the Presbyterian General Assembly, Rev. Dr. McLaren presented the report of the Home Mission Committee, which showed: Receipts, $162,436; excess over previous year, $18,000; amount planned, $175,000; expenditure, $168,837; new fields opened, 10; total number of churches, 1,688; estimated expenditure, 1906, $188,000.

Thus the forward movement calls for an increased expenditure of $20,000 more than was planned for last year. The financial depression had affected the committee's work.

Of the older fields, 28 have become augmented charges, and 11 others self-sustaining.

The most serious problem confronting the committee was the lack of funds for missionaries. Nearly all the $50 secured from the old country had proven successful.

The report as to New Ontario showed that in Algoma five new buildings were erected, and six new churches are being operated in North Bay. At Latchford a church has been erected, and at Englehart one will be put up this season.

In Manitoba and Saskatchewan the influx of foreigners is a most serious problem. Poor Europeans are being employed among the $2,000 in the west. Twenty-four Galician ministers, members of the Independent Greek Church, are engaged under Presbyterian auspices. In British Columbia the fruit-growing districts are attracting the settlers.

Prince Rupert is regarded as an especially important point and the question is asked if the church is prepared to cover the districts to be opened up by the G.T.P.

In the reports of the missionary societies Knox College is shown to have supported 35 last year, and 40 the present year. The total cost of the fields was $168,837, or 10 per cent more than last year. There were 145 preaching stations.

In the eastern section the work of the catechists has greatly progressed. The total contributions were $18,498, an increase of $1,843. A new recommendation has been made for the remuneration of catechists. Those who have entered on the study of theology, $3 a week, with board and laundry, and those who have not, $2 a week.

Rev. Robert Laird, reporting on the collection of the endowment fund for Queen's University, reported that $305,049 of the desired half million has been subscribed, of which $168,717 has been paid. A report was also received from the University of Toronto, which has received $100,000 in four times that is raised. Subscriptions during the year totalled $51,000. The report was not an encouraging one.

Only twenty to the assembly decided as to the future connection of Queen's with the college.

Civilis Welcome.

The afternoon session commenced with a civic welcome from Mayor Ashcroft, who presided at the opening of the conference, represented by Rev. Dr. Rose and J. M. Aikens, K.C.

Dr. Rose, speaking of the union pointed to the seeming difficulties which confronted Methodism when uniting. Most of these disappeared with union, and the report was a most encouraging one.

Reports from the colleges at Halifax, Montreal, Kingston and Toronto were considered and the two first named adopted. The Knox College report was held over for a special committee to report on the resignation of Principal McLaren. Queen's College report was debated and is held over till a later session.

The friends and alumni of Queen's spent the entire afternoon in Westminster Hall, where a most interesting and unanimous recommendation to the general assembly, but with no practical result.

To-night a public meeting was held in the interests of home missions.

College Reports.

Knox College reported expenditures of $23,614.25 and a revenue of $315 less. The board regretted that no offer had yet been received for the present college building.

Queen's College, Kingston, reported a revenue of $99,564.33, and a surplus of $84,121. The total number of students enrolled were 1251, an increase over the preceding year of 112.

Much discussion was experienced by Halifax College, which reported a deficit of $1,000. The board regretted that no offer had yet been received for the present college building.

DREYFUS IS SHOT

I only wanted to graze him. My object was to protest against the participation of the army in the glorification of Zola and the rehabilitation of Dreyfus. My blow was aimed less at Dreyfus than at Dreyfusism.

A curious feature of the ceremonies in the Pantheon was the absence of many foreign ambassadors. It is understood that the Turkish ambassador was the prime mover in the plan to induce the members of the diplomatic corps to abstain from going to the Pantheon. Rumors were about of possible trouble and the feeling that the French people were divided on the issue.

The Turkish ambassador, Baron Kurino, and the latter's successor in inducing Sir Francis Bertie, the British ambassador, to remain away.

Prince von Radol, the German ambassador, refused from attending the ceremonies, fearing that the sight of the German uniform might provoke insults from the rabble.

Zola and His Work.

Up to 6 o'clock to-night 230 arrests had been made.

Emile Zola, who died in September, 1902, was ten years ago twice condemned to a year's imprisonment for addressing to Felix Faure, then president of the republic, the letter "J'accuse" in which he laid bare the conspiracy in the general army staff against Major Dreyfus.

To-day his ashes were deposited in the Pantheon, the French Temple of Fame, with impressive ceremonies.

The proposal to give Zola a glorious funeral, first made in 1902, around in France all the dormant animosities that came out during the Dreyfus trial and the transfer of his ashes, as it was voted by the chamber and the senate, had to be twice postponed because of the state of public feeling.

The opposition to the removal of the remains of the pantheon arises from the fact that he is thus honored because of his famous letter, not because of his literary fame. His political career was a failure. He was a successful leader in the Dreyfus war; he vanquished the general staff of the army, and to give him a funeral in the Pantheon was to honor him for his political career.

The attempt on the life of Major Dreyfus, made by the Pantheon, was a member of the staff of the Pantheon. A journal devoted to military progress and the military progress of the Pantheon, was a member of the staff of the Pantheon.
