and family from the congregation of St. Philip's Church. The pectoral cross presented to the bishop by members of the cathedral congregation and a few others is of gold, set with five exceptionally aqua-marines, the gift of Mrs. S. G. Wood, taken from a set which has been in the possession of her family for several generations. In the bishop's chair, or "throne," as it is usually termed, there has lately been inserted a Roman tile or brick, about 16 inches in length and 10 in breadth, and two inches thick, which was sent out some years ago as a gift to St. Alban's Cathedral by the mayor of St. Alban's in England, and the retor of the parish in which were found the remains of a Roman building in England from which it was taken. This building was certainly in existence in the earlier part of the fifth century and probably much earlier, and there fore brings the cathedral closely into touch, as it were, with the martyr whose name it bears, and who was pu o death at St. Alban's then called by its Roman name of Verulamium, in the fourth century. It is interesting to notice that Canon MacNab was some thirty years ago the first Canadian clergyman to preach in this ancient Cathedral of St. Alban's in Hertfordshire, England.

SHORE BERTH FOR BERESFORD. Marquise de Fontenoy in New York Tribune: Reports of official origin are being industriously propagated by friends of the present cabinet, to the effect that Admiral Lord Charles Beresford, since the termination of his eommand of the great Channel fleet, will be appointed to one of the most important berths in the service on shore. Possibly this is merely intended to arrest the popular agitation which has been caused by the general impression that Lord Charles Beresford has ment by the admiralty, and that the officer who stands highest in public favor as the foremost commander of the British navy is being sacrificed to the jealousy and and animosity of cliques at Whitehall. This agitation has grown to such an extent as to become a source of much concern to the cabinet. It is possible, however, that the 1808 QUEEN WEST. P. J. McAVAY latter may be really in earnest about giving Lord Charles a shore command. For it would not only have the effect of putting an end to the movement in his behalf, but would also prevent him from entering parliament and from becoming one of the bitterest critics and foes of the administration. As long as he continues in active service, either ashore or affeat, he is forced by the laws of discipline to remain silent and to refrain from assailing While the bishop gave his hand to the admiralty; and it is no secret that the members of the chapter in order, on several occasions he has been given command, even by first lords of the admiralty who were opposed to him, merely in order to reduce him to si-
