North Toronto Association Expects To Pay Off Indebtedness in 20 Years.

Last night's meeting of the North Poronto Conservative Association was called to discuss the building of a Canadian navy, but the net outcome was a decision to erect a new club building for the association, at the northeast corner of Yonge and Wellesnortheast corner of Yonge and Welles-ley-streets. The cost, including land, will be $260,000. It is estimated that the revenue from the building, esti-mated at $32,000, will pay the interest of $13,000 a year, and provide a sink-ing fund to pay off all incumbrances in 20 years. There will be a hall to seat 2000, 40 living apartments bowling seat 2000, 40 living apartments, bowling alleys, billiards and a roof garden. The membership is placed at 300, with a
