ANTI-CONSCRIPTION NATIONALIZATION FEELING RUNS HIGH

CRY "VIVE LAURIER!"

Parade Results in Small Riot, But Police Do Not Interfere.

Montreal, May 24.—The atmosphere of this city is becoming surcharged with the movement against conscription, and numerous gatherings are being held nightly, at which protests against the measure and denunciations of the Borden government, as well as demands for a general election, are being made in language that borders on the inflammatory and the seditious.

The emphasis on the growing discontent among a certain class of the younger men to cause trouble because of the pronouncement of Sir Robert Borden in the house of commons for conscription took definite form in conection with a parade of several thousad young men that primarily was meant to be a protest from laboring men against the high cost of food, but which developed into an anti-conscription parade, and which was followed by a fight at Phillips Square between two soldiers and some civilians who had been parading. The parade itself was opderly, Banners bearing these motioes were conspicuous and were supplemented with ories along similar lines: "Down with censcription," "Give us a new government," "We want elections," "Down with the trusts." content among a certain class of the Shout for Laurier.

Derogatory cries about Sir Robert L. Borden and cries of "Vive Laurier" were heard from the men in the parade as it wended its way from Latontaine Park to Phillips Square and St. Catherine street, where it disbanded.

Armand Neagle, e member of the teamsters' union, and one of the local leaders of labor, spoke in Lafontaine Park before the parade started. He said the workingmen would continue to protest against the high cost of living and against conscription, but they would keep within the law.

The row at Phillips Square was precipitated by a returned military efficer and a private endeavoring to wrest one of the banners from a civilian in the parade. Fisticuffs were indulged in, but as no person engaged in it was seriously hurt the police took no action.

Frank Burns, 14 Linley avenue, who interfered to save the military men, did not escape so easily. He had been standing on the sidewalk, opposite Phillips Square, and when he saw the struggle he rushed into the thick of it. He came out minus three teeth and with a scalp wound/which was stitched up in the Western Hospital, four stitches being required in the discounts on all lines. R. ial to The Toronto World London,Ont. May 24—The Ontario Lai Education Association, at its annual or vention here today, unanimously adop a resolution introduced by Fred Bancr of Toronto, calling upon the Domin Government to confiscate 75 per cent. all war profits in Canada since the or break of the war. Nationalization of all industries con-nected with the production of war ma-terial was also asked, as was the nationnected with the production of the nation-terial was also asked, as was the nation-alization of all cold storage plants in the country, and the nationalization of all banks and rallways, including the Cana-dian Pacific Railway. The appointment of a food controller for the country was also asked, along with an advisory com-mittee, one-fifth of the membership of the committee to be labor representatives.

mittee, one-fifth of the membership of the committee to be labor representatives.

Miners Oppose Conscription.

As to conscription, the association decided to leave the matter to the Dominion Trades and Labor Council, which meets in Ottawa the first of June. A. J. Macdonald of Cobalt declared that the miners of that district were entirely opposed to conscription.

Another resolution adopted by the association called for increased pensions for returned soldiers and reorganization of the pensions board. The association went on record as being strongly opposed to military training in the public schools of the country, and called for labor vigilance to prevent the recognition of such. In the matter of war profits, the Dominion Government was charged with evading responsibility for placing taxation where it properly belonged.

The association, at its chosing session tonight, chose Niagara Falls for its meeting place for next year. George L. Myland, of Peterhoro, was chosen president: John Lawton, of London, first vice-president: Dr. H. E. Hett, Kitchener, second vice-presidents are: H. J. Everett, Cobalt; John Briggs, Hamilston; John McAnnineh, Niagara Falls; C. Stinson, Ottawa; D. B. McCormack, Guelph, Joseph F. Marks, of the Industrial Banner. Toronto, was elected secretary tressurer.

On motion of James Simpson, of Toner. Toronto, was elected spectary treasurer.

On motion of James Simpson, of Toronto, the association adopted a resolution urging upon the executive council of the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress that the Dominion government be asked to appoint a special committee to inquire into the possibilities of utilizing the advantagen of aerial navigation during the war with a view to preventing private or corporate control of aerial transportation for commercial purposes.

Maurice at the war office yesterday, said that the British losses this year were fifty per cent. smaller than their losses on the Somme last year, altho larger forces had been engaged. The British army had gained four times as much ground and it had taken many more prisoners and guns. He

OVERSEAS CLUB GIVES HUNDRED AEROPLANES

Caradian Associated Press Cable London, May 24. - Colonial Secretary Long presented the director of general military aeronautics with three thousand pounds contributed by the Overseas Club, to purchase their ninety-ninth and hundredth aeroplanes, presented by the club. "The empire was going to be the most united, self-reliant, peace-lovingempire in the world," he said. The empire in the world," he said. The days of lip service to overseas dominions had gone.

Lord Northcliffe, who presided, declared that one of the duties of the Overseas Club would be to gather public opinion thruout the empire and lay it before the governments and press. Thruout the empire the urgent need was the question of land settle-ment for soldiers, the allocation of capital, the re-establishment of broken businesses, provision of capital the establishment of businesses soldiers who had lost months years of opportunity in the most vig-orous period of their career. They were demanding to know what was to be done for them. Our active yours dominions were a lot more interested in the matter than we were, and Canada had set an excellent example by the appointment to vacant public offices suitable to returned soldiers.
