

UNIONVILLE BOY KILLED AT VIMY

Was Reported Missing, But Scout Found Body on Battlefield.

REFUSED DISCHARGE

Went Back From Hospital to Keep Pact With Four Comrades.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Appleton, of Unionville, formerly of Richmond Hill, have been informed that their son, Pte. Omund Appleton, was killed at Vimy Ridge. The sad news arrived in a letter received from a scout, who found Pte. Appleton's body on the field with pictures of the family in his pockets. He was officially reported missing on May 4, and his relatives had been anxiously awaiting definite information.

Pte. Appleton was one of the brave "Princesses" having enlisted with them in the early part of the war at Winnipeg, where he was employed. During his long spell at the front he was once wounded, and after spending eleven months in a hospital, refused to take his discharge and went back to the trenches. In his last letter, two days prior to the news that he was missing, he wrote that he and five comrades were bound unto death not to leave each other, and that was why he refused to accept his discharge. The faithful letter also tells that in the great Vimy Ridge battle his five comrades were killed, and it seems that he was the last to make the sacrifice.

Pte. Appleton was 29 years of age, and was born in Richmond Hill, where he received his early education. Eleven years ago he went west where he remained up to the time of his enlistment. In his honor, a fitting memorial service will be held on July 15 in the Unionville Methodist Church. Besides his parents he is survived by five sisters—Mrs. W. E. Lear, Mrs. G. Champion, Mrs. R. Cole, Edith and Yerna, and three brothers, Oscar, Byron and Orlando.

YORK COUNTY AND SUBURBS

ST. CLAIR MERCHANTS NEED AN INTERSECTION

Stretch of Raised Car Tracks
Without Crossing is Bad for Business.

The need for an intersection midway between Dufferin street and St. Clair Gardens on West St. Clair avenue, Earls Court, is much felt by the storekeepers on both sides of the thoroughfare. The matter has been brought to the attention of the civic authorities on more than one occasion, but the department of works has taken no action. Another appeal will be made to have the matter attended to.

The residents of North Earls Court welcomed home Pte. John Tomson, C.E.F., who was wounded and invalided home recently. Pte. Tomson is a well-known resident of the section and a member of the North Earls Court and Earls Court Ratepayers' Association. Earls Court Central Methodist Church will hold a reception to welcome the new associate pastor, Rev. Ernest Crossley Hunter, B.A., who succeeds Rev. Archer Wallace, M.A., transferred to Berkeley St. Methodist Church. Rev. Mr. Crossley was previously stationed at Uxbridge Ont., and was for two years assistant to the late Rev. Dr. W. F. Wilson, at Elm St. Church. He and Mrs. Crossley will reside at the former home of Rev. Mr. Wallace, St. Clarens avenue, Earls Court.

Results of Church Campaign For War Prisoners Issued

With a hundred churches still to be heard from, the report of the Prisoners of War Society, which was instrumental in having collections taken recently in city churches on behalf of war prisoners in Germany, shows that the handsome sum of $7,900.83 was donated. In view of the numerous calls made upon Toronto citizens to subscribe to patriotic objects this amount is regarded as more than satisfactory. It includes a collection taken at Scarborough Beach and the officials are confident that when the remaining churches send in reports the amount will be about $10,000.

SOLDIERS HEAR OPERA.
Two hundred of the returned soldiers from the convalescent homes were entertained by the Walker-Stevens Opera Company at the Grand Opera House last evening, and thoroughly enjoyed the beautiful production of "The Serenade." ### FORMER BOOKKEEPER FACES THEFT CHARGE

Was Employed by T.E.L. Company and Enlisted When He Was Discharged.

Maurice E. Lumjair, who formerly lived at 11 McKenzie avenue, was brought back from Camp Borden yesterday afternoon by Detective Twigg, and today, in the police court, he will face a charge of stealing the sum of $1,320.45 from the T. E. L. Co. with whom he was employed as a bookkeeper until a few months ago. According to the police, the theft is alleged to have occurred in November, 1916. It is claimed that Lumjair falsified his books and so obtained the money. When the deficit was discovered, the police say, he was discharged, and the company with whom he was bonded was expected to refund the money. This the bonding company refused to do, a technicality in the agreement enabling them to avoid payment under the existing circumstances.

The police are ignorant of the nature of the technicality. It is believed that it is contained in a clause in the contract which says that a bonded employee, in the event of a misuse of his firm's money, must be prosecuted and convicted before the bonding company can be compelled to make return. The company did not sanction the issuance of a warrant for Lumjair's arrest until a short time ago.

NEW YORK GREET RUSSIAN MISSION

Sailors Cheer Heartily Bakhmetieff's Message From
"Free Russia."

RECEIVED BY MAYOR

New Russian Ambassador Expresses Deep Appreciation of U. S. Aid.

New York, July 6.—The Russian mission, headed by Boris A. Bakhmetieff, ambassador to the United States, was greeted by thousands on its arrival here today.

The most impressive incident of its coming occurred when the mission landed at the Battery. Lined up in a long double row was a battalion of Russian sailors. They caught the eye of the ambassador as soon as he entered the court of honor, resplendent with the white, blue and red of Russia. He asked a manner which exemplified the new democracy of his country.

As he began to march along the line he waved his hat to the sailors and shouted: "I bring these greetings from the Russian people. The Russian people are fighting for the world's peace. The Russian people are fighting for the world's peace. The Russian people are fighting for the world's peace."

From the Battery the distinguished visitors passed thru flag-bedecked lower Broadway to the city hall, where they were formally received by Mayor Mitchell. In reply to Mayor Mitchell's welcoming address, Ambassador Bakhmetieff said: "The United States has joined the ranks of the nations which are fighting for the same lofty human ideals that animate the people of Russia."

There was a dramatic pause as the speaker took from the lapel of his coat the medallion of the reception committee and waving it aloft said: "The inscription on this medal says: 'To make the world safe for democracy'—we are one."

"Democracy—liberty and democracy—such are the challenges of the Russian revolution, such are the aims which our nation is endeavoring to secure within its own boundaries and hopes to attain for all nations."

United Efforts.
"There is not a deep historical meaning in the event that while the first American troops stepped upon the soil of Europe as true champions of mankind, the Russian people, by the burning vision of freedom and democracy, is thrusting her warriors with unyielding impulse upon the yet unbroken ranks of the common foe of liberty?"

In these united efforts, then, lies the hope of mankind. Let us peace, democracy and liberty rule the world."

At the close of the mission tonight attended a great patriotic mass meeting at Carnegie Hall.
