JEF FUND BRITISH T

Franch Has ed to Obtain ributions.

I PAMPHLE

mmittee Asks of Citizens' nerosity.

opportunity lately s of joining the R now offered thos

FFICERS FOR S' ASSOCIATION

Geo. W. Moore testants for the idency.

Association of Can-less Hall on Saturday were nominated for ook, George W. Moore; first vice-president, y first vice-president, mation); second vice-Moore (acclamation); ing (acclamation); ing (acclamation). Or onto board—J. W. this, F. W. S. Davis, n Everett, R. G. Hecrs. James S. Lovel, W. McTear, H. B. C. E. Prime, A. C. Willmot, F. J. Zamelected.; —E. O. Zimmerman, C. C. Smye, second amation). milton board—E. J. alope, G. A. Mathele, P. A. Sommerville, lamation).
J. Moody, G. P. 1).

V. H. Graham, John dam Taylor, viceion). W. Williamson, vice-A. C. Merrett, viceon). Rowlands (acclama-E. B. McMaster, F. ation). I. Laurier (acclama-F. L. De Wolfe (ac-W. J. Hopwood (acballot—Walter Gale, ter Madill.

ics Council rganized in Paris

A national cou ng organized by M. different and industry will ttee. nd a statement ap-rning papers that day each week is

WIRING &

E CO. E STREET

Group

EATON'S DAILY STORE NEWS STORE OPENS AT 8.30 A.M. CLOSES AT 5 P.M.

FUR COATS FOR MEN AND WOMEN AT MODERATE PRICES.

A Host of Dainty Pretty Things

That will specially interest her of artistic tastes and nimble fingers

A. When the vogue for Passey evolves such a presty ribbon as this, then sy all means let it come! In American beauty, green, gray, deift blue and aark blue, with the design in rich warm tones. Width 9 inches. Price, per yard, $1.50.

B. "Roses, voses, all the way" - to be exact a veritable ladder of roses -the ribbon above, combining brocade and shadowed effect and immensely decorative with its black border. Procurable with roses in natural colors or old gold, old rose and blue grounds Width, 93.4 inches. Special value, $2.00 a yard.

T IS TIME to be up and doing if the dainty personal gifts that most women delight in making and receiving are to be accomplished facts by the time Christmas is here—only 6 weeks now. So here are suggestions that afford much scope for the display of ingenuity and artistic talent.

C. "Handsome is as handsome does," so they say, so this ribbon easily carries off the falm. For its effective design and appearance none can gainsay (it is obtaina le in green, bluish and tawny shades on red or blue grounds w th black ed e) and its price "does" very handsomely, for although it is 93-4 inches, it is only 98c a yard.

E. and F. Pretty pompacour ribcons with picot edge and satin border charming for trimming. Colors pink, blue, mauve, yellow. E, I-inch wide, price 20c; F, 1 1-2 inch, 25c a yard.

K. and L. Here are some things and some very pretty things-two charming workbags. K is made of a pretty flowered ribton in rose and green, and possesses a peculiar buckle-like adornment. Price, $2.25. L A most capacious Dorothy bag with frilled heading, faced with plain rioton, is made of a pretty shadowed ribbon. Price, $2.00.

H. Matching their quaintness ty their daintiness, these little bedroom slippers, made of biocased ribbon with a stiffened toe. stitched to a ribion covered fadded leather sole, and held on the joot ty ritbon covered elastic, the whole trimmed with da nty quil-ling, and a r bbon rosette. The pair sketched is pink, but they are 0 to nable in other shades at $2.50 a

O. There's much art in the fash oning of a boudoir cap even though it be just a mob cap of ribbon and lace -art in the joining of the ribbon unaer shirred bands of the nar-rowest of bebe ribbons that exactly match its rose hue—artin the edg-ing of the lace with narrow ribbon and consummate art in the

M. A bag that is easy to make and

M. A bag that is easy to make and distinctive in shape? It is here—a str king affair with peacock blue doube frilis down each side, joined by a shirring of nariow satin ribbon to a panel of blue, flowers with rose and purple roses, on a shadowy grey ground. The oval handles, which make it so easy to carry, are wrunt with peacock blue ribbon. Price. $3.95.

D. Charming and unusual for tags, for trimmings for candleshades and a thou and and one fallals, this striped taffeta ribbon, w th shadowed design in black. It may be had in blue and rose, green and pink, rose and blue. Width 6 inches. Price, 50c

> A Time-saver. Call " Main 3501

when you want to tele-phone for goods from several departments. An experienced shopper will endeavor to make your purchases for you as well as you could make them in and wish to purchase any of the articles illustrated on this page, write to the Shopping Service, and your order will be carried out care-fully and promptly by one of the special shopG. A mere trifle of a bag-but such a gay, joyous-lookin; affair that did you not know it came from our own work-rooms you would say it was French. It is made of rose colored ribbon with a delft lue shirred edging, a green shirred featherconed handle and trimmed with wee ribbon roses and trimmed with use ribbin rises and daisies. Then at the bottom- you'd never guess it---is a mirror. Price $4.50.

IF YOU LIVE OUT OF TOWN

J. Almost as many uses as it has folds, has this quaint little collapsible bag. You might use it for your powaer puff as the sketch suggests, for some trifle of need ework, for linger to ribtons or even handkerchiefs, for when opened out in its full bulging shape it is quite capacious. It is pretty too, made of a shacowed ribbon. The price is $1 00.

—Main Floor, Centre.

Y. A useful present this-a tea cosy covered in pale pink silk, with a detachable cover of handmade crochet in Irish design. Price. $3.75.

Doylies to match are 25c and

Z. A new idea in bags, stamped for the popular steel or colored bead embroidery, made of black silk and lined with lavender lustre. Price $5.00. Other designs in black silk are obta'nable at $1.50 and up-

São each.

Is the decoration of china your metier? Then you'll be interested in the group of prettily shaped pieces sketched below-a group that but hints of the chaims of the immense collection of un decorated china to be ound in the Basement.

P and Q. Quaint square shaped sugar bowl and cream jug, both with covers, and queer little handles that allow uch scope for artistic decoration. Price, each, $1.25.

R. Vase (10 inches) with bell top. Price,

S. Tall, slender necked vase, with large tase. Price, $1.00.

T. Cup and Saucer, the cup of graceful open shape. Price, 4oc.

Coffee cups are obtainable with stra ght sizes at 500, or sloping sizes at 350.

Do you knit or do you sew? Do you crochet or embroider, or are you such an accomplished needlewoman that you are seeking fresh stitches to conquer? Whatever your attainments in this direction you'll surely find suggestions in the Need ework Depart. ment. A jew articles are portrayed in the sketch below that will help you to turn out the most ravishing bits of daintiness.

no embroidery in the middle to chafe the dear litt'e face), mother will find it dainty and pretty enough the most wonderful baby in the world—the pillow that is sketched below. It has a double cover of fine inen, the top scalloped, the under one lace edged and laced together with pale pink ribbon. The bird em-broidered in the corner is a somewhat unusual design, and through the eylet holes that pierce its wings may be seen glimpses of the pink The rosette is also of pink satin. Price, $6.50. Stamped for working

X. The sort of present wife, this envelope pil low-case stamped ready for embroidery in variis 48c. The completed pillow-case in linen like

N. Just the sort of rosy candleshale that throws such a pretty light, the shirred one of shadowed poplin pat-terned rioton with a grey and lavender background. The final touch of daintiness is given by a woven slik fringe. Price, $1.95 a pair.

Women's Silk Hose, 98c Pair

citals, etc., oftentimes bring-ing the need of such hosiery; also with the gift season little more than a month away, such an offering should be of spe-cial interest. All full fashioned silk hose, samples and over-makes from the manufacturer who makes all our better grades. Most of them are silk to the top, with 4-inch lise lined garter hem. Others have 9-inch lisle garter welt. All have lisle spliced heels, toes and sole, and high spliced heels. Colors include black, heels. Colors include black, white, oyster, pearl, grey, flesh, pink, rose, red, ye.low, champagne, fawn, tan. bronze, navy, amethyst, or purple. All sizes in black and whise, but not all in each color. Extra special, Tuesday, per pair, 98c.

—Main Floor, Young Ht

-Main Floor, Yonge St.

A Notable Collection of Model Coats from Paris and London, all Specially Priced.

Magnificent Wrabs for Even ng, Alternoon and Sireet Wear by such wor.d jamed makers as Premet, Doucet, Bernard, Brandt, Doeumet, Gabrielle Chanel, Georgette, Axe brad et Magame Aron, Mageleine Monjaret, Jenny, Jeanne, Lanvin, Paquin, Cheruit, Maurice Mayer, Bradiev and Jay. Displayed in a unique manner on living model in the French

Room, the display to begin at 10.30. It is surely impossible for Fashion to conceive, or clever costumiers to execute, more ravishingly sumptuous, more graceful wraps, than these. And verily, and in fact, they have set the mode for the Winter season, for they have provided inspiration for some of the foremost makers of New York, hence the remarkably low prices. There is scarcely a coat among them but originally cost at least more than double Tuesday's price. The very materials that make them could in many cases be scarcely purchased for the money, for most of them are made of the richest of fabrics lined with the most gorgeous silks, and lavishly trimmed with > fashionable furs. Metallic brocades, exquisite chiffon velvets and plushes, heavy satins with enormous collars of fur, sometimes bands of fur a foot in depth, and trimmed with lovely metallic laces and embroidery are to be noted among the > evening coats. The afternoon and street wraps include duvetyns, plain and cut bolivias, and velours, broadcloths and velvets, and among the motoring wraps are tweeds and plaids, velours and broad-> cloths in huge variety. They are arranged thus: Group 1. Evening and Afternoon Wraps. Special price, $87.50. Group 2. Afternoon and Street Wraps. Special price, $75.00. Group 3. Street Wraps. Special price, $65.00.

Street and Motoring Coats. Special price, -Third Floor, James St.

Spice usefulness with daintiness and you have the ideal of those who prefer their gifts to be the work of their own clever fingers. And to such, these towels should commend

U shows a bath towel of good quality 22 x 44 inches and obtainable stamped for working in various designs at 48c. (The completed towel sketched is $2.50.)

V depicts a pretty little hucksback guest towel, completed as in the sketch, $2.25, stamped ready for working, 29c.

-Second Floor, Centre,

T. EATON COMITED

The pretty cosy hug-metight worn by the lady in the picture is very easily made, It requires 3 hanks of teazle wool, 30c per hank and 2 ounces of Shetland Floss for the border at 12c per skein. That illustrated is made of white wool with a blue border and a ribbon round the neck, and is $3.00.

If "she" is a methodical seedlewoman, the sort who has a place for everything, and everything in its place, she would dote upon this workbasket, which she can carry about from room to room with her. It is lined with rose colored satin, has a strap at the back fitted for thimble and sciscore to provided with a tiny needlebook and even processes quite a capacious tray beneath. Price, $8.25.

What a joy it is, a little stand like this sketched in the lower right-hand corner, in which you can put the whole family's stockings provided the family is not too large! And when the stockings are all mended it will hold your knitting or whatever work you may be engaged on, in the most satisfactory manner. It has a frame of dark stained wood, and a pretty chintz cover. Price, 65c.

