AKRON DROPS OUT OF LEAGUE BASEBALL

Akron, O., Feb. 25.—Akron will not be represented in the International Baseball League during the coming season A syndicate of business men who had taken an option on the purchase of the franchise announced today they would not complete the ueal. The franchise will be sold to the highest bidder, club officials said tonight. Montreal and Newark, N.J., business men, are said to have made bids to take over the club. Newark, N. J., Feb. 28.—One of the two Newark syndicates seeking the Akron franchise in the International League is so confident of success that it has ogtained an option on property for a park, it was reported today. This syndicate, headed by David Driscoll, is understood to have bid forty thousand dollars, while the other group's offer has been placed at thirty thousand dollars. The second group is headed by Roy Mack, son of Connie Mack of the Philadelphia Americans. Driscoll's syndicate was reported to have guaranteed full payment in cash.
