THE FORTY-SIXTH ANNIVERSARY
OF THE
BROOKLYN LADIES' ASSOCIATION
IN AID OF THE
GRANDE-LIGNE MISSION.

We glean the following from their excellent report :—

Ignorance bigotry and superstition have in some measure been lifted from France, Italy and Spain, but they have found a home in this wideawake, progressive new world of ours, and in Mexico and Canada we meet these characteristics, and more dense ignorance than among any other Romanists in the world. It is because of this we tell again of the work of the Grande-Ligne Mission, of her difficulties and her successes. Those who do not understand the position of the Romish Church in Canada often ask, "Why does Grande-Ligne need help from us? Let the Mission be supported by the Baptists of Canada." In the Province of Quebec the French Catholics outnumber the Protestants seven to one, and the Romish Church still holds the old treaty which the Jesuits succeeded in getting from King George, when Canada was ceded to the English. "The Province of Quebec was thus allowed to retain certain national peculiarities of old French law and Papal Church supremacy, rooted in the territory and fastened on the people by law. The Canadian subjects of the British crown were thus consigned to abject, helpless, hopeless slavery to the Church," which has ever repressed the advances of education and progress, and freedom of thought and speech.
