

is excavated vertically in the side of a hill, there shall be double iron doors with at least a space of 18 inches between the outer and inner doors.

Eighth.—The Trustees have no wish to interfere with individual taste in the construction of monuments, etc. ; but to protect the interest of each separate proprietor, they reserve to themselves explicitly the right to prevent the erection of large improvements which might interfere with the general effect, or obstruct the principal view.

Ninth.—Proprietors who may wish either to enclose their Lots, construct vaults, or to have their boundaries more fully defined, must first apply to the Superintendent on the premises, who must be present, whose directions they will conform to on these occasions, as well as in the erection of other improvements, attending at funerals, etc. ; and it is to him that the Trustees look for the enforcement of these rules, and for the maintenance of decorum in the Cemetery on all occasions.

Tenth.—Commencing with the year 1887, no permits will be granted to plant cedar or other hedges.

The Superintendent cannot be responsible for having graves prepared in time for funerals, unless he has at least eight hours of daylight previous notice thereof.

G. DURNFORD,
Secretary-Treasurer.
