WORLD WAITS FORTRESS' FALL

Watching With Close Interest Effect of Collective Note to Be Handed to Turkey.

LONDON, Jan. 11.—No sign of a loosening of the deadlock in the Balkan situation is yet in evidence. In the meantime the world awaits the fall of the long beleaguered fortress of Adrianople and is watching with close interest for the effect which the collective note to be handed to Turkey by the ambassadors at Constantinople of the European powers will have on the Turkish Government. Contrary to the general belief that the ambassadors during their "conversations" at the British foreign office have not discussed the question of the future of the islands in the Aegean Sea, in regard to which no decision has yet been taken, it was at an earlier meeting that Adrianople and the islands were pointed out as two of the chief difficulties in the way of the conclusion of peace. Must Concede Something. The Marquis Guglielmo, Imperial Di Franceville, the Italian ambassador in London, who besides Paul Cambon, French ambassador to Great Britain, is the only ambassador here who has spent years in Constantinople and knows Turkey well, remarked today that if the powers were about to press Turkey to cede Adrianople, some concession would be necessary concerning the Aegean Islands. Otherwise, he said, the Ottomans in their despair would become a kind of wild animals capable of any excess. The Turkish delegates confirm the report that they will leave London next week for Constantinople if the allies do not change their minds. One of the Turkish envoys said: "We are rather glad that Europe has now experienced what sort of swine herds these Balkan peoples are. We know them of old." Despite the "Made in Vienna" reports that Roumania is mobilizing and that an ultimatum has been sent to Bulgaria demanding the "cession of" Siliatria within a fortnight, and accompanied by the threat that Roumanian troops will occupy the coveted territory if the demand is not granted. The Standard this morning, voicing the views of cool-headed observers here, says: "The task of the ambassadors of the great powers has been rendered more difficult by the large crop of unfounded rumors concerning the Balkan situation, it is certain that the united judgment of Europe must in the end conquer." Must Apply Pressure. To insure peace the opinion in general, however, is that the ambassadors must not delay too long in applying adequate pressure at Constantinople and that if the dilly dallying which marked the procedure of the powers before the war began, when intervention on behalf of the Christians in Macedonia and Thrace would have averted the sacrifice of many thousands of lives on the battlefield, is to be the policy here, the situation will become so serious that a military and naval demonstration will be necessary to convince Turkey that she can no longer defy civilization.

CIPRIANO CASTRO'S APPEAL DISMISSED

Ex-President of Venezuela to Remain on Ellis Island.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—The writ of habeas corpus in the case of Cipriano Castro, former president of Venezuela, was dismissed by Judge Holt in the U. S. district court today. This sustains the contention of the government, as argued in court yesterday, that the federal courts should not interfere in the case until the board of enquiry at Ellis Island shall have passed on Castro's right to enter this country. In dismissing the writ Judge Holt ruled that Castro should not be allowed to enter the country under bond pending a decision of the board. He will therefore remain on Ellis Island. Railway Baggage Car Afire. CLEVELAND, Ohio, Jan. 11.—Special No. 43 on the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railroad, a seven-car mail and baggage train, raced into Cleveland late yesterday with a baggage car afire, and was met by an engine company, which put out the blaze after the car and contents had been almost destroyed. The fire was noticed by the agent at Painesville, 30 miles east, who telegraphed ahead for the engine company. The fire is thought to have been started by sparks from the engine.

HER HEARING RESTORED. Astonishing Deliverance of Woman [Thought to Be Hopelessly Deaf. NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—Fully convinced that her hearing has been permanently restored after years of torture with head noises and almost total deafness, Mrs. A. J. Barry of 555 W. 170th street, New York City, has now been persuaded to tell the story of her wonderful deliverance. After having spent hundreds of dollars on mechanical devices, medicines and doctors' fees, she decided that this latest discovery, however simple and inexpensive, should be the last she would try before resigning herself to the hopelessness of permanent and total deafness. Those interested in Mrs. Barry's case and the hope it holds out for them, may write to her in confidence for full details, which she offers to send gratuitously.
