St. John Interested in Discussion at Ontario Meeting

Problem of Extension - Some C. P. R. Views - The Case of a Shipment of Leather Sent to This City

Berlin, Ont., Jan. 22 - A representative meeting of Waterloo county manufacturers was held here yesterday, to consider the extension of Canada's export trade.

H. P. Timmerman, C. P. R. industrial commissioner, said that both the home and foreign markets were worthy of attention.

George Peppall, assistant foreign freight agent of the G. T. R., said something should be done to assist the small manufacturers in securing a part of the foreign trade.

L. J. Brethaupt, president of the Brethaupt Leather Company, Berlin, who are large exporters, said he would like to see something done by the transportation companies in transporting to the seaboard goods for export.

A committee of trade in the county with D. B. Detweiler as chairman, was appointed to investigate the matter more fully.

OFFERS $500 FOR CHILDREN'S AID SOCIETY WORK

St. John Lady Will Give This If Others Make Up Sufficient

AN ENCOURAGING NOTE

In Face of Withdrawal of City Grants, Organizations Will Hope Other Generous Friends Will Help in Time of Need

The first response to the appeal of those organizations which have been handicapped by the withdrawal of grants is of such a nature as should not only give great encouragement to those interested in the work of these organizations but should inspire other generous citizens to give substantial assistance.

The Children's Aid Society of St. John never got beyond the point of organizing, because it had no funds. Nine months ago the Municipal Council granted $1,000 but the amount was not available from any of its funds last year, and the general reduction in estimates prevented its being placed on the list for assessment this year.

Yesterday, however, a lady who is deeply interested in children, and who deeply regretted that the required grant was not available, informed A. M. Heiding, the president of the society, that she would contribute $500 if a sufficient additional sum could be secured to begin the society's work on a permanent basis.

If two other citizens contributed a like amount the $1,500 would be available, and the society would be in a position to begin its work on a small scale at least; and, once established, the value of the institution would be so well illustrated that it would never lack friends in the future.

The action of the lady in question will give great encouragement to all the organizations whose grants have been withdrawn to hope that every one of them will also find many generous friends in this time of need.

LETTER FROM WALTER WILSON WHO IS AT SALISBURY PLAIN

Thomas L. Wilson, of Chesley street, has received a letter from his brother, Walter, a member of the Canadian contingent at Salisbury Plain. He said that they were daily awaiting word to proceed to France, as their rifles had been inspected and the identification cards filled about their necks.

While at target practice a few days previous to his writing, one of the soldiers in the 9th Battalion was shot. The targets have steel frames, he said, and one of the bullets glanced off it, striking the man in the head. The writer stated that they were all anxious to get to the front and hoped for the best.

BY-LAW MATTER: A Chinese, H. W. Kee, reported for sweeping dust from his shop at 416 Main street, upon the sidewalk, was fined $2. He pleaded ignorance of the law and said that the policeman should have told him he was violating the law.

NOT RICHMOND STREET BOY: Charles Connell, arrested in connection with recent thefts, is not Charles Connell of Richmond street. The latter has been subjected to annoyance because of the similarity of names and feels the matter keenly.
