The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

A FEW LEAVES FROM THE DIARY OF A STOMACH.

10 a.m. Oh, dear, another hot day. Wonder if I'll be abused as I was yesterday. If I am, I'm going to strike. Just disposed of a half-chewed breakfast. We ran for the train, which meant that I was so jiggled about and so tired that it took me twice as long to do my work. Hope she gives me an hour or so of complete rest before anything more comes my way.

10:30 a.m. Two glasses of ice water have just arrived. It will take all the energy I can pump-up in the next hour to warm me up to my normal temperature.

10:40 a.m. Half-chewed breakfast didn't satisfy her and she has bought some peanuts and started eating them.

12 m. Peanuts have dribbled along steadily ever since last entry. Think she has finished them, though.

12:30. Decided she wasn't very hungry and instead of a good solid dinner sent me down a cold egg, heavy with chocolate. Could have managed it all right if it hadn't been so cold, but that makes it terribly hard to deal with.

1:10 P.M. More ice water!

1:40 P.M. She has been lifting some heavy books, and, as usual, used my muscles instead of her arms muscles, as she should have done. Tired me more than digesting a six-course dinner.

7 P.M. Fried potatoes, green corn, veal and blueberries. What do you know about that!!!!

7:45. We are going down town for a chocolate walnut cake, ice!!!!

8:20. Got home and found some one had made some lemonade. She drank two glasses. That on top of the college ice settles it. I strike.

8:40. Have sent back the college ice and lemonade.

8:50. And the veal.

9:10 P.M. She has sent for the doctor. Says that college ice must have had something the matter with it. Her mother says it is probably the weak stomach she inherited from her father.

9:30 P.M. Doctor says it's just a little upset, due to the hot weather. Good-night!!!!

Daily Hints for the Cook

BAKED CORN.

One cup cold boiled corn, cut from the cob, one cup milk, one egg, salt and pepper to taste; Bake one-half an hour or till set like a custard. Serve hot.

COCOANUT CUSTARD PIE.

Three tablespoons coconut, 3 eggs, 6 tablespoons sugar, 3 eggs beaten with 1 teaspoon flour, 1 quart milk, a little salt and nutmeg. Bake with one crust.

VEAL CUTLET IN GRAY.

One slice veal steak. Remove bone and cut in size you wish to serve. Place in frying pan with one cup water, cover and allow to simmer. Add seasoning and a good piece of butter. Turn and let cook slowly about one hour, and just before removing add half a cup of milk or cream. Easy to cook and tastes like chicken. For those who like the flavor add one small onion when the seasoning is added.

APPLE FRITTERS.

Wipe, core and parry four sound apples, make a thick batter with two tablespoons flour, half teaspoon salt, one teaspoon baking powder, half cup milk. Sift flour, baking powder and salt together, add milk by degrees, beat till free from lumps, cut apples into rings half an inch thick, dip each ring in sugar, then into batter, fry in hot fat till golden brown and apple is soft and drain on soft paper.

COLOMAY CAKE.

One half cup butter, 1 1/4 cups granulated sugar, 2 eggs, half cup thin cream or rich milk, half even teaspoon soda, one even teaspoon cream tartar, two cups of pastry flour, half cup seeded raisins. Add whites of eggs last and bake in tube pan. When cold frost with a heavy white icing that will contrast prettily with the yellow of the cake. Citron sliced in thin strips may be used instead of raisins, or in combination with them.

VASELINE NO GOOD FOR HAIR

Dandruff Germ Thrives in It, as Well as in All Grease

A well known Chicago hair specialist invited the Inter-Ocean reporter to come to his office and see, under a microscope, how the germ that causes dandruff thrives in vaseline. The specialist said that all hair preparations containing grease, simply furnished food for the germs and help to propagate them. The only way to cure dandruff is to destroy the germ, and the only hair preparation that will do that is N. S. Herpicide. Destroy the cause, you remove the effect. With out dandruff, hair will be in good health. Ask for Herpicide. It is the only destroyer of the dandruff germ. Sold by leading druggists. Send line in stamps for sample. ## WATER BOARD MEETING

At a meeting of the water and sewerage board yesterday the water assessment for the year as published in yesterday's Times was signed.

Ald. McGoldrick brought up the matter of the water tax against Reed's castle, owned by the sons of the Sacred Heart. The amount $232, he thought, was rather large considering that the property was not being used. The engineer was instructed to bring in a report.

On motion of Ald. Smith, it was decided to recommend that the water system be extended in Woodville road and Bay Shore road, provided the residents guaranteed 6 per cent. of the cost. The estimated cost was $2,200.

It was decided on motion of Coun. Barnhill to lay a water main in Sand Cove road, if the necessary guarantee of 6 per cent. was made. It was decided not to extend the water main in Morris street, as the revenue would not warrant it.

There was some discussion regarding precautions against sewerage in Spruce Lake and Coun. Curren agreed to bring the matter to the attention of the board of health. Tenders were opened for a water main in Cross and Nelson streets, Carleton Place. These were from:

John Wheaton—Rock, $3.50; earth, 75c. George McFay—Rock, $3.50; earth, 75c. McGough & Pierce—Rock, $3.50; earth, 70c.

The latter tender was accepted.

The following recommendations from the engineer were adopted; that a catch basin be placed at the intersection of Leclerc and Charlotte streets west; that Elizabeth Perley's request for a refund in her water tax be refused; that a new sewer be laid in St. John street west, and a cottage at Silver Falls be leased to David Patterson for $25 a year.

The engineer's estimate of cost for diverting the sewers at Marble Cove, $8,000 was referred to the council without a recommendation. The extension of the sewer in Wentworth street for school purposes was left to the engineer. The engineer's recommendations to extend the sewer in Market Place, west, and Military road were agreed to.

The matter of placing water and sewerage in the house of Miss Murphy, Rodney street, was left to the engineer and Ald. Scully. The water extension in King street west, was left to the engineer.

MR. BENTLEY GIVES FACTS OF THE MATTER

Standard's Article Very Misleading—The Road Commissioner and The Wood

A. F. Bentley, M. P. P. for St. John county, writes to The Telegraph regarding an article which appeared in the Standard yesterday morning, in which it is alleged that Mr. Bentley is responsible for the bad condition of the highway road passing through Fairfield, on the way between the city and St. Martins. The Standard stated that a quantity of pulpwood owned by Mr. Bentley and piled along the highway at the place mentioned, "caused an obstruction and a danger to traffic." It also alleged that Mr. Bentley had been notified by John Robinson, road commissioner, and John McDonald, jr., secretary-treasurer of the highway board for the parish of St. Martins, to remove the wood, but he had refused.

Mr. Bentley gives emphatic denial to these charges and throws a little light on the subject in his letter, which is as follows:

To the Editor of the Telegraph.

Sir—I notice in today's issue of the Standard an article with reference to some pulpwood piled along the highway in Fairfield, which I think is misleading and unfair.

It is true that I, in common with other lumber operators in the district, owing to lack of snow for hauling last winter, was compelled to yard out a quantity of lumber and wood and pile it at points along the highway where it would be possible to load it on wagons. I am not aware that the above course should render me liable to be singled out as a public offender.

That the public have been inconvenienced or endangered by the wood, I deny. The road in that locality is very little travelled, not more than five or six teams on an average passing each way in twenty-four hours.

A part of the wood in question I bought from Mr. Robinson, road commissioner. The statement in the Standard article that the wood has prevented repairs to the road in that district is also misleading, because in the first place I told Mr. Robinson if there was any wood in his way when repairing the road to have his men move it.

Trusting that you will find space for letter, I am,

Yours, etc., A. F. BENTLEY.

St. Martins (N. B.), Aug. 31, 1910.

Mr. Bentley sent a copy of this letter to the Standard, with the request that it be published in justice to himself.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and recommended only local remedies, but constantly failing to with local treatment, pronounced it curable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by E. J.
