Hon. J. A. Robb Refuses to Comment on Statements by Auto Men

OTTAWA, Ont., April 17.—"I made my statement Thursday," said Hon. J. A. Robb, Minister of Finance, last night, when he was asked to comment on the statements made yesterday by representatives of the automobile industry in Canada, following his budget speech.

MEETING IN TORONTO
TORONTO, Ont., April 17.—An announcement was made here last night that automobile manufacturers and representatives of commercial and industrial concerns affected by the tariff changes, announced by Hon. J. A. Robb, Minister of Finance, in his budget, would meet here on Wednesday, April 21, to discuss the situation. It was estimated at the offices of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association that one thousand Canadian industries were affected by the Federal government's action in lowering the tariff that has protected the automobile manufacturing industry. It was also stressed by the C. M. A. officials that the demand for a combined conference of all Canadian manufacturers affected by the tariff, changes had

Bill Carson Signs St. Pats' Contract
TORONTO, Ont., April 17.—Bill Carson took the leap yesterday. On the eve of the National Hockey League meeting at Montreal, the great Stratford centre player attached his signature to a St. Patrick's contract calling for the largest salary ever paid a hockey player in the history of the sport. St. Patrick's refused to divulge the amount paid to the brilliant goal-getter, but they maintained that it had set a new record.

MARY PICKFORD
In the Merry, Yet Serious and Betimes Pathetic Story of New York's Tenement Sections

"Little Annie Rooney"

MARY PICKFORD, Foremost Screen Star, in her new screen feature, "Little Annie Rooney," has stepped out of the costume drama role back into the ragamuffin, hoydenish, comedy characterization that so endeared her to the public and won her the title "The World's Sweetheart." Little Annie Rooney is the twelve year old daughter of a New York policeman; leads a band of street urchins in fiercely contended, rough and tumble, battles with rival gangs; and is secretly and madly in love with a strapping truck driver, the pal of her big brother, Tim Rooney. Her garb consists of cheap calicoes, much-darned stockings, down-at-the-heel shoes, and, sometimes, a boy's cap. Ten different nationalities and races are represented among the kid types in the two score or so youngsters figuring in the picture. There also are many animals—dogs and cats, a goat, a pig and a couple of horses.
